New Zoning Plan Draws Protests

Light Industrial Area Scheme Irks Home Owners

Edmonton's scorching expansion yesterday coaxed up over city council horizon a proposal for a light industry area between 95 and 109 streets and the CNR tracks and 107 avenue.

Confronted with a request to rezone from three-storey multiple dwelling to light industry area, half a block on 102 street between 106 and 107 avenues, and faced with an indignant delegation of home owners living there, the bylaws committee gingerly tossed the hot potato back to town planning commission.

They said they would not recommend rezoning and suggested the whole area from 95 to 109 streets between CNR tracks and 107 avenue be studied with an eye firmly on requirements 10 or 15 years ahead.

LONG TERM PLAN

Ald. Sid Parsons, committee chairman, insisted "we'll have to have a long term plan for light industry in that district. It's got to come. We can't deal with individual lots."

"Town Planning Commission has felt for some time that it should come," said Commissioner T. B. Menzies.

Changsha Falls To China Reds

CANTON, Aug. 5.—(AP)—The fortress of Changsha fell today to the Communists and a credible report of a Nationalist army revolt on that front may mean the road to Canton soon will be almost wide open.

Loss of Changsha, 365 miles to the north, was bad news enough for the Nationalists. But the Reds in another lunge southeast of Changsha were only 215 miles from this refugee capital.

Unofficial but credible reports said Gen. Chen Ming-Jen, new governor of Hunan province, had revolted.

General Chen only recently replaced Gen. Cheng Chien. The government charges Cheng fled from Changsha and went over to the Reds Monday.

The unofficial accounts said General Chen, close friend of his predecessor, also went over to the Reds taking at least one of his three armies with him. His armies totalled 90,000 men.

Defection of the Hunan general would create a serious situation. It conceivably could compel Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, the commander in the south, to withdraw his troops southwestward into Kwangsi province. This would leave the road to Canton open for a swift and easy Communist advance.

Surface Right Brief Ready

Representative provincial cabinet will meet next Wednesday morning with surface rights committee of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture to discuss protests of farm holders of surface rights on Alberta oil lands.

This was announced today by Acting Premier Hon. N. E. Tanner. Mr. Tanner is minister of lands and mines, department which control oil development in Alberta.

Roy C. Marler, president of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, will head the surface rights committee meeting the cabinet.

Committee will present a brief containing requests of farmers for greater compensation where oil companies explore and drill on lands for which surface rights are held by the farmers.

Tempers Strained by Heat Are Offered Some Respite

The little fellow with the stubble on his chin dropped his fare in the box. He moved slowly down the aisle, looking from side to side.

He dropped into a seat beside a tired looking man in a stained white shirt.

The little fellow with the stubble on his chin coughed slightly. "Continuing warm, isn't it?"

"Umh."

He tried again.

"Weatherman says that real hot spell is over for a few days, though. Sure was hot wasn't it."

"Umh."

He didn't have the stubble on his chin for nothing. The little fellow gave it another try.

"They say the high today will be 75. That's too bad, isn't it?"

The tired-looking man in the stained white shirt spat out the window.

"Umh."

Stubble-chin bore down.

"I hear the hottest day was Aug. 1. It was 83. Sure was hot. Lucky we had a holiday. You like the heat?"

"Ugh." (The tired man was never one to repeat himself too often.)

"Weatherman says we are having near normal temperatures now. Guess you can't ask for more than that, eh?"

The tired looking man, looking more tired than ever, climbed to his feet.

"Pardon me," he said. And he took a medium-sized lunch pail and slugged the little fellow right on the stubble.

"Batter it should rain kets and doks all over you, sir. Goot day!"

(At this point everyone in the bus burst into the first verse of "Good morning to you," and the tired looking man went home to beat up his wife.)

THIS CASE PROVES FISHY ALL AROUND

CALCUTTA, Aug. 5 — (Reuters) — Calcutta customs officials felt there was something, er—fishy about a railway passenger's luggage. They opened his bag, found it contained a large fish. They opened the fish, found it contained 2,700 rupees (about $750 worth of illegal Indian currency).

Body Found in River Believed Missing Man

Saskatchewan River gave up the body of an unidentified man today.

Police are investigating possibility it might be the body of Gavin Michie, Edmonton man missing from his home since Monday.

The body, that of a man 40 to 45 years of age, was found by a river ferryman this morning at Bruderheim.

Belief the body may be that of the Edmonton man who apparently walked to his death in the Saskatchewan River stems from description of the missing man.

Michie, 46, was said to be about the same stature as the drowned man.

A coat and a hat, believed to be Michie's were found by the river bank Monday.

The hat, found near a set of footprints leading up to the swirling river, bore the initials G.M.

The body found today was wearing no coat, but was dressed in a light brown shirt, grayish trousers and black ankle boots.

City Detective Roy Dick, in charge of investigating circumstances surrounding Michie's disappearance, said today all signs pointed to the body being that of the missing man.

Identification had not been completed at noon today.

MOTHER IN SCOTLAND

Michie was not married. As far as could be determined, his nearest relative was his mother who lives in Scotland.

The missing man worked as a janitor in a local hotel.

Said to be a reliable man with a good record, he had worked there for some time.

The body was moved to Park Memorial funeral chapel here at noon today.

East Jail Escapee Found; One Hunted

MONTREAL, Aug. 5—(CP)—One of two youths who late yesterday escaped from Bordeaux jail has been recaptured, police said today.

Captured in the central-west sector of the city was John Tucker, 20. Police still are on the lookout for the other youth, Roy Lloyd, 18.

Isle - Minded Get Chance In Want Ads

Who wouldn't buy an island if there was half a chance?

And there's definitely more than half a chance.

Bulletin classified ads this week-end put just such an opportunity within reach of Edmontonians.

Under section 82 of The Bulletin classified pages, "B.C. Properties," Pender Island acreage and home is advertised, complete with all the traditionally seaside advantages of moderate climate and ocean view.

The ad also offers to exchange the property for an Edmonton home.

For some Bulletin classified pages reader the advertisement may prove the answer to the problem of a finding a retirement spot; for any reader it indicates the wide variety of goods and services interchanged so successfully through small-cost Bulletin want ads.

Commons Has New Clerk

OTTAWA, Aug. 5.—(BUP)—Leon J. Raymond, Liberal member of parliament for Gatineau, has been appointed clerk of the House of Commons to succeed Dr. Arthur Beauchesne, who is retiring after holding that office for over 24 years, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent announced today.

By accepting this post, Raymond will automatically resign his seat and a by-election will be necessary. It will be the first by-election to be called after the June 27 election. St. Laurent did not announce any date for it.

At the same time, the prime minister announced that the government would propose J. Alfred Dion, member for Roberval, for the office of deputy speaker and chairman of committees of the House of Commons.

E. C. Perley Dies

OTTAWA, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Ernest Clint Perley, 44, wartime director of tank production for the Federal government, died suddenly today.

NEW PASTE MAY END DRILLING' N' FILLING

OTTAWA, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Dr. D. F. Steadman of the National Research Council believes he has discovered a paste to fill tooth cavities that may do away with drilling and filling in the dental chair.

The paste, discovered by the physical chemistry expert several years ago, is being tried out by the Canadian Army Dental Corps. No results have yet been published.

A dental corps officer said if the discovery is proven successfully, it will be as important "as insulin."

Dr. Steadman, who comes from England and is a graduate of the University of British Columbia, said he had tried the paste on his own teeth and that it worked.

He said the paste was composed of chemical compounds which closely resembled the organic construction of the human tooth.

He inserted the paste several times a day for three months. After that time, the cavity was completely filled, leaving a tiny scar. In a few years time, he added, the scar vanishes, leaving no evidence that the tooth had been filled.

6th Killing in 10 Days Rocks Toronto Area

Youth Is Charged In Father's Death

TORONTO, Aug. 5—(BUP)—Gordon Graham, 16, was charged with manslaughter today after his father, a 37-year-old truck driver, was shot in the sixth of a wave of killings to rock the Toronto area within 10 days.

Chief Constable Andy Hamilton of suburban Etobicoke township said the charge was laid after a coroner's jury found him criminally responsible for the death of his father, Douglas Graham, after a family quarrel.

Hamilton said Gordon had tried to stop the argument.

Graham, bleeding from a .22 rifle bullet wound in his side staggered from his trim cottage home in Alderwood, 10 miles from Toronto early today. A neighbor said he was clutching his side and shouting. He died seconds later.

Mrs. Graham and two men boarders at the death cottage were held for several hours for questioning but later freed. Gordon was held at township police headquarters.

The 30-year-old widow had been married twice. Two sons, the issue of a former marriage, were serving time in Burwash reformatory and Kingston federal penitentiary.

The Grahams lived in their Alderwood home for nine years and neighbors told police they frequently staged bitter quarrels among themselves. The dead man's daughter, Thelma, 14, was away at the time of the shooting. She was attending school at Coburg, Ont.

DEATH SQUAD BUSY

A township police sergeant said Toronto's already overworked homicide squad, busy gathering evidence of five murder cases since July 27, had not been called on for aid and added he thought their help would not be needed.

Meanwhile in the city proper, the price on the heads of two killers wanted for shooting and gun-whipping three persons was boosted to $8,000.

City police commission ordered a roundup of all 38 calibre pistols in Toronto. The commission put up a $2,500 reward for information that would lead to the killer of Robert McKay, 25. McKay was an electrician.

The commission boosted by $1,000 a $2,000 offer for evidence about a holdup man who shot and killed

Tito Defies Russia To Attack Him

Warns That Army Of 500,000 Ready For Any Invader

By EDWARD M. KORRY

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Aug. 5—(UP)—Marshal Tito, defiant and confident, returned to Belgrade today after warning that a Yugoslav army of at least 500,000 men will fight any invader, even Russia.

Tito said he did not think Russia would attack Yugoslavia. But he said the danger of war still exists because other Cominform countries have designs on Yugoslav territory.

Tito, formerly one of Premier Josef Stalin's closest collaborators, mentioned the possibility of war between the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia for the first time in a speech before army garrison officers at Skoplje, capital of Yugoslav Macedonia.

COMINFORM AIM

The Cominform is sponsoring a campaign to detach Yugoslav Macedonia and combine it with Bulgarian and Greek Macedonia in a new independent nation.

Tito gave a firm answer in his speech as to what Yugoslavia would do if Russia or any other nation attacked it:

"We are prepared to defend our country against every one because anyone who might endeavor to hinder our peaceful socialist construction and threaten our integrity would be an enemy, no matter who he might be."

At the same time, however, he said, he doubted the Soviet Union would attack Yugoslavia.

CANNOT ATTACK

"The Red army cannot attack a socialist country because that would mean the end of socialism in the world," he said.

But, there are other Communist nations that "have pretentions against us."

"We have been criticized for keeping such a large army, but there are still some leaders in some countries who have not renounced their aspirations toward a rich country such as Yugoslavia," he said.

"The strength of our army determines the . . . possibilities of attack upon us. For that reason, we must have a strong army. We must equip it. We have an army of 500,000 men . . .

DANGER EXISTS

"It would be an illusion to think that there will not be any more wars. As long as colonial enslavement exists, as long as there are grounds for the liberation struggle of colonial people, as long as there is the tendency of the stronger to enslave the weaker and small nations, as long as plans are made to execute unfair revision of frontiers, the danger of war will exist."

Two Charged, 5 Held In Gun Fracas

CALGARY, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Five more persons were held for questioning today in connection with a shooting fracas in a downtown theatre last Tuesday in which a Calgary man was slightly wounded by a stray bullet. Two other men face attempted murder charges.

John Mallock of Winnipeg and Robert Boyle of Moose Jaw, Sask., were charged with attempted murder last night in the same case.

George Mallock of Winnipeg, brother of John Mallock, today was charged with tampering with a material witness while vagrancy charges were laid against Patricia Kindrat, Winnipeg, Pearl Pike of Calgary; Evelyn Zabolsky of Victoria and Marion Wagner, no fixed abode.

All are scheduled to appear in city police court later today.

Douglas Siegner, alias Ronald Fontaine of Calgary, was hit in the abdomen by a spent slug from a .38 calibre revolver in the shooting affray. He has been released from custody in his own recognizance. The bullet is believed to have richocheted off a brass rail before striking Siegner.

Police today were still looking for a fourth man who took part in the shooting and is believed to have fired the gun.

Boyle was picked out of a lineup at police headquarters Thursday night, and was identified by an eye-witness as having been one of the men who took part in the affray. Police believe John Mallock was the driver of the car in which the alleged assailants made their get-away from the theatre.

George Mallock arrived in Calgary by plane on Wednesday and was arrested after he allegedly tried to interfere with Siegner.

Police say they know the motive behind the affair but declined to disclose it.

3 Children Die in North

WINNIPEG, Aug. 5.—(CP)—An outbreak of infantile diarrhoea among Indian children in the Churchill, Man., region, 600 miles north of here, has caused three deaths since July 22, military authorities reported today.

Extra nurses and supplies are being made ready to augment the medical resources of the combined services camp where an isolation ward has been set up at the military hospital to care for other victims.

The first case of the disease was reported July 22. Since then 10 native children have been admitted to hospital. In addition to the three deaths attributed to infantile diarrhoea a fourth, whose cause is not yet known, is under investigation.

As the setting up of the isolation ward strained the resources of the tiny service hospital two army wives who are qualified doctors have joined the staff of Maj. B. L. P. Brosseau and his staff of eight nurses in battling the outbreak.

China Reds Soviet Tools Says Acheson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5—(AP)—State Secretary Dean Acheson today blasted the Chinese Communists as tools of Russia and declared United States willingness to help the people of China establish true independence.

The secretary reviewed United States-China relations at a press conference after issuance of a state department report in which he wrote off China's Nationalist government as a total failure.

BASIC PRINCIPLES

In a statement he laid down the five "basic principles" which he said should govern United States policy toward China.

He declared he was not in the least "defeatist" about the Chinese situation.

As for his lack of defeatism, Acheson indicated in the 1,000-word statement handed out at the press conference that it was based on a belief that the Communists are in for serious difficulties in trying to govern the Chinese "in the interests of a foreign power"—Russia.

COMMIT SELVES

They are "commiting themselves deeply on the basis of unproved assumptions as to the extent of their own strength and the nature of the reactions which they are bound to provoke in China and elsewhere," he said.

"The United States, for its part, will be prepared to work with the people of China and of every other country in Asia to preserve and to promote their true interest, developed as they chose and not as dictated by any foreign imperialism."

Bergman Asks Divorce Plans to Quit Movies

ROME, Aug. 5 — (AP) — Ingrid Bergman announced today she will divorce her husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom. She also said she will quit the movies.

The beautiful 32-year-old Swedish star made the declaration in a deeply-emotional statement issued to reporters by her personal representative, Joseph Steele.

Sources close to the actress reported she intends to marry Italian director Roberto Rossellini after her divorce.

"It was my desire not to make any statement until the conclusion of the picture I am now making ("After the Storm").

MALICIOUS GOSSIP

"But persistent malicious gossip, that has even reached the point where I am made to appear as a prisoner, has obliged me to break my silence and demonstrate my free will.

"I have instructed my lawyer to start divorce proceedings immediately. Also, with the conclusion of my present picture, it is my intention to retire into private life."

NO COMMENT

In Hollywood, Dr. Lindstrom's publicity representative said the doctor had not heard directly from Ingrid and would not comment until she notified him personally of her action.

He said that Miss Bergman will not seek exclusive custody of her 11-year-old daughter, Pia.

For years, Miss Bergman and Lindstrom had been considered one of Hollywood's most-happily-married couples.

Girl Mash Note Writer Threatens to Kill Self

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(CP)—A hysterical young woman yesterday threatened to kill herself if Joe DiMaggio, New York Yankees star outfielder, spurned her love.

Police placed her in her father's custody, fearing a repetition of the recent tragedy that almost took the life of Eddie Waitkus, Philadelphia Phillies first baseman.

The girl, whose name was withheld by authorities, was described as a petite, 30-year-old brunette. Police said she had been pestering DiMaggio with mash notes for months. Once she tried, without success, to visit him at his hotel.

It was said the Yankee management has taken the precaution of providing DiMaggio with a bodyguard.

The girl's father agreed with police that she was in need of psychiatric treatment and she was released in her father's custody on his promise to obtain such treatment.

The case paralleled in many ways the Waitkus case. The Philadelphia player was shot by a crazed admirer who had lured him to her room with a mysterious, urgent note.

The girl had been writing DiMaggio notes for months. But the first disclosures came only this week. At the time it was rumored that the New York centrefielder was linked romantically with blonde dancer Junior Standish. Both DiMaggio and Miss Standish issued prompt denials of that story.

Bible's 10 Words Stop Complexes

Simple Belief In God's Will Can Beat Inferior Feelings

The Bulletin continues today publication of a condensation of the widely-acclaimed book, "A Guide to confident Living," by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale. Dr. Peale, noted Protestant clergyman, has been minister of Marble Collegiate Church in New York since 1932. He has achieved impressive results as a pastor by forging a link between religion and psychiatry to gain happiness and success for thousands of people. Dr. Peale's principles for confident living will appear in 17 daily chapters.

CHAPTER 4

By Norman Vincent Peale

In ridding oneself of any inferiority complex, the techniques at hand should not be underrated because they are simple. The purpose is to change the thought slant.

Inferiority is a malady of the thoughts, and any device, however simple, that changes the pattern of thinking may be employed.

A young man came to see me who said he was having a nervous breakdown. He did not look it; he was a vigorous, healthy person. He was a bit on edge, however, and obviously high-strung.

He was not having a nervous breakdown, but was trying to imagine himself into one. He sat in my office reciting one by one the "enormous" difficulties he was then experiencing.

I made a few suggestions of an optimistic character, but he immediately leaped upon them and began to tell me why they couldn't be done. He was expert in advancing objections.

Finally, I said to him, "It is a shame that life is treating you so badly and that you are a failure. It is too bad, too, that you are breaking down and going to pieces; I feel very sorry for you."

He looked at me in amazement, and then he all but got out of his chair; he sat on the edge of it. There was a flash in his eyes and a flush on his face. His whole manner became aggressive.

"I'm am not a failure," he snapped. He threw back his head with the air of saying, "I can do things."

Indeed, he then did everything but call me names, and I looked admiringly at him and said, "Wonderful! That's wonderful!"

Ten Tremendous Words

"If you would get up each morning and talk to yourself in the mirror just as you are talking now," I advised, "you would convince yourself that you have strength and power and possibilities within you."

I actually urged him to stand before a mirror and talk to himself in just that fashion, and to say out loud the 10 tremendous words, "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

He actually did just that!

His wife told me she was never so amazed as to hear her big, strapping husband talking with himself in the bedroom, standing before a mirror saying to himself, "You can do things. You have brains. God is with you. If God be for you, who can be against you?"

She walked in on him and found him thus, to his embarrassment.

That man now has a grip on himself. When I meet him, as I do occasionally, he says, "It is all due to a text—yes, a text."

It works when you believe it—and practice it. He learned the secret of driving off his inferiority complex by employing a practical formula.

Those 10 words from the Bible contain the basic solution to the inferiority complex. They represent one of greatest, if not the greatest, spiritual and psychological facts in releasing personality; namely, the thought of God's presence with you.

Practice believing that God is with you and you will get to believing that nothing can be against you. By a subconscious procedure the sense of inferiority and inadequacy gradually give way to one of confidence and faith.

Faith Is Stronger Than Fear

Fear and faith are the two greatest powers competing for control of the human mind. Inferiority and inadequacy on the one side; faith and effectiveness on the other—that is the issue.

But never forget that faith is stronger than fear; adequacy is stronger than inadequacy.

Repeat those 10 words of reassurance a half-dozen times every day; let them saturate your mind. When you face a critical or difficult situation, practice saying to yourself, "God is with me; I can meet the crisis that I now face."

I have a friend, a successful businessman named Jerry Henderson, who practices this technique, and I am indebted to him for a very striking story of its efficiency.

★ ★ ★

Henderson was in the Canadian Rockies at Lake Louise to climb and to ski with a party of friends. Shortly before, one of the most famous ski masters had been killed in a heavy avalanche and the suggestion of danger was potent.

Henderson's party went with their guide to climb White Eagle Peak. They climbed all morning, and by noontime had surmounted 5,000 of the 9,000 feet they had set out to climb.

At this point the guide told them that they had to cross a transverse valley lying before them. The sides shot down at an angle of 45 to 50 degrees.

"Do not call or whistle or raise your voice, forit might start an avalanche," the guidewarned. Since hearing of the death of the ski master all had been impressed by the danger of avalanches.

The guide took from his pack a big ball of red yarn. He cut off 50-foot lengths and gave one to each.

"Tie this around your waist," he said. "If an avalanche starts, shake off your skis, throw away your poles and start swimming just as if you were in the water. This will tend to bring you to the top. If the avalanche buries you, the end of the red yarn will protrude and we can find you."

Girl Climber Terrified

In the party was a girl in her 20's. She looked down at this steep declivity and thought of the possibility of an avalanche, and she became very frightened. She began to whimper and cry, and said to Jerry Henderson, "I can't do it. I'm terrified. I simply can't do it."

He did not feel any too blithe about it himself, but Henderson believes in and practices the 10 great words. He takes the position that one need not fear if God is with him; that one can reasonably count on God to see him through whatever comes.

He turned to the trembling, hysterical girl and said quietly, "The Lord has watched over you throughout your life, hasn't He? You believe that, do you not?"

"Yes," she sobbed.

"Well, then, can't you trust Him to take care of you for the next 20 minutes?" he asked.

A remarkable change came over the girl. She made the descent beautifully, taking her place in the long graceful line as each skier followed the other about 40 yards apart.

She made the descent with exultation. She had achieved a marvelous sense of victory over herself. She learned that there is a secret through which one can get rid of his inferiority complex.

Try simple religious practices. They work. You can be rid of your inferiority complex.

Calgary Gets Health By-Law

CALGARY, Aug. 5 — (CP)— A municipal hospitalization plan by-law for Calgary, which provides for an annual maximum tax levy of 5 7/12ths mills on all real property, has been drafted by Alberta Health Minister Cross, it was learned today.

The plan has been forwarded to City Solicitor D. S. Moffatt as being the form of by-law approved by the Alberta government.

Non-property owners would make compulsory annual payments of $15 by heads of families and $10 by single persons over the age of 21. All citizens would be required to pay an additional $1 a day general ward hospitalization, including bed, board and nursing service, when admitted to hospital for treatment.

The scheme would become effective on Jan. 1, 1950 provided the by-law was approved by a two-thirds majority of all persons 21 and over resident here for at least three months.

Mr. Moffatt said that Dr. Cross held the city had power to tax directly and that the revenue from taxation would be ordinary revenue. The expenditures required by the by-law would be ordinary expenditures and no debenture debt would be created.

Industry Area Proposed Here

102 street, the delegation vigorously protested setting up a light industrial area as long as there are vacant lots on adjoining avenues.

RESIDENTIAL

"We bought property in that block for residences, with the understanding there wouldn't be any industries. Out of 20 lots, two are now devoted to business and they shouldn't have been issued permits in the first place."

"We think Lockerbie and Hole (owners of the lot which precipitated the situation) should go a block over on 105 avenue to build.

"If they won't build a three-storey multiple dwelling unit on the property, I'll buy it from them and put one on it," said Mr. Browning.

The delegation firmly insisted it was against the "thin edge of the wedge" in rezoning only one lot, but admitted the logic of a long-term prospect of light industry coming into the area.

The whole area has been under consideration for many years, said Ald. Parsons, and purchase of the lot by Lockerbie and Hole, plus their desire to erect a business enterprise on it, brought the matter to a head.

TIMES CHANGE

Mayor H. D. Ainlay said people must realize times change, and former choice residential districts in what is now the centre of the city have become completely commercial areas. The same thing is bound to happen in other areas—this one, for example.

Mr. Browning agreed, but maintained there will be "lots of injustice" if the city rezones the whole area when lots are still open. "Business won't buy residential lots to wreck—not yet," he said.

That time is coming very soon, the mayor insisted.

TO COMMISSION

Ald. R. F. L. Hanna moved the question be shoved back to Town Planning Commission for study of the whole area.

"Everyone should know our intention for the district, not just a block or lot at a time."

Ald. Athelstan Bisset stoutly maintained his opposition to rezoning the area now, but agreed with the committee recommendation to let Town Planning Commission give the sizzler its diligent study.

NO FIRE

Fire Fighters Pull a Sandy On Pursuers

BELVIDERE, N.J., Aug. 5. — AP)—Twenty-five motorists swallowed it hook, ladder and sinker.

They came roaring after the Belvidere Fire Department yesterday as the trucks rolled through town.

The engines clanged out to a rural area, cut into a dead-end lane and came to a quick halt. But there was no fire.

Instead the firemen jumped from the trucks carrying only small pads and pencils.

They swirled around the 25 cars that had followed them into the lane, took the license numbers and warned them not to get caught again chasing fire engines.

Rhine River Fish Die Mysteriously

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Aug. 5.—(AP)—All fish in the lower Rhine river have died from some mysterious poison, the ministry of food in Westphalia said today. Experts suspect the poison came from waste matter from an industrial plant. German fisheries estimated their loss at more than 100,000 deutschmarks (about $30,000).

Boudoir Intruder Captured In East

WINTHORP, Mass., Aug. 5—(AP)—A boudoir intruder who set of an uproar of police shooting and women's screaming was captured early today after a three-hour search. Frightened wives and irate husbands reported that the unexpected guest dropped into at least four bedrooms in one-block area.

Sixth Murder Rocks Toronto

Alfred Layng as Layng tried to halt his escape from an attempted chain grocery store robbery.

Then the provincial attorney general rang up the $8,000 total by adding $2,500 to the reward for the McKays' killer.

The beaten, bullet-ridden body of McKay, 23, an air force veteran, was found lying face-up in a suburban North York ravine on Tuesday. Police said he apparently had been dragged there after being shot to death in his automobile.

A search for the death car produced the body of McKay's pretty, brunette wife, Gloria, 23, sprawled in its back seat in a parking lot.

BOTH BEATEN

Both McKay and his wife had been beaten either before or after the apparently motiveless shooting, police said, and had been forced to drive to a remote spot while the killer covered them from the back seat.

Mrs. McKay's body was found covered with a blanket.

Detectives centred their search around information that a middle-aged and still unidentified man was seen with the couple when they called at a service station for gas on Monday night.

The station operators said the inside of the car was dark at the time and as a result could not clearly remember what he looked like.

Shortly after the car pulled away, they said, they heard shots but thought at the time they came from someone hunting in the area.

2 OTHER VICTIMS

Two other murder victims in the crime wave that shocked this provincial capital and prompted women to stay close to home were Arthur Wickert and Leslie Hern. Two men faced trial as a result.

Hern's beaten body was found under a beach boardwalk by a party of vacationing Montrealers who said they slep nearby without suspecting it was there.

According to police, Wickert was shot to death by his brother-in-law after a family quarrel.

Jaywalking MP Arrested In B.C.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 5—(CP)—Police are playing no favors in their crackdown on Vancouver jaywalkers.

A summons was issued yesterday to R. O. Campney, barrister and member of parliament.

Mr. Campney, Liberal MP-elect for the hard-fought Vancouver Centre seat, must appear in police court Aug. 27 to answer the charge of crossing a street at other than an intersection.

STRENUOUS DAY of fun at inter-playground picnic ends appropriately for little Mercedes Lyzenko. Sandwiches, hot dogs and ice cream were downed hungrily by almost 2,000 youngsters at Bordon Park outing. Kids played games, ran races and swam for more than two hours. Who wouldn't be hungry?

Picnic Has Everything And 2,000 Kiddies, Too

If 2,000 kids hooting and howling with glee and stuffing themselves with everything from hot dogs to suckers constitutes a picnic, the Edmonton Recreation Commission threw one yesterday.

Even the sun smiled down—a little too warmly perhaps—as youngsters from 22 city playgrounds got together for their annual inter-playground outing at Borden Park.

And 26 playground directors had their hands full for three hours.

The kids didn't go short on anything. There were foot races and peanut scrambles. There was wading for the little ones and swimming for their big brothers and sisters.

A sing-song started things off on the right foot. A smacking picnic supper finished off the festivities.

Winners of races for youngsters from four to 15 won suckers and chocolate bars and championship ribbons.

SPIRIT OF FUN

There was a ball game or two, arranged by Cecil Goldstick, director of playgrounds athletics.

But more than anything there was the spirit of a picnic. There was no doubt that the kids had fun.

And then there was the old, old story of harrassed mothers. There were lots of them. They tagged around with the little ones, being dragged from the ball field to the swimming pool, from the hot dog stand to the races.

But they took it like mothers.

Looking cool and collected throughout was Bert Pettigrew, supervisor of playgrounds. How he managed it he didn't say.

Maybe he likes just kids.

By-Law May Free City Of Whistling Engines

Edmonton's train whistling by-law inched closer to enactment yesterday.

By-laws committee instructed City Solicitor T. E. Garside, K.C., to write the Board of Transport Commissioners asking the city's portion of cost of installing protection at various railway crossings throughout the city.

Before the city can legally stifle the shrieks of locomotive whistles, protection must be provided for crossings so that the railways are not liable for damages in case of crossing smashes.

Commissioners reported total capital cost involved is $65,000, of which the city probably will have to bear 40 per cent or $26,000. Annual operation costs are estimated at $9,000, most of which the city would likely have to bear.

Back in February, 1948, the city made formal application to the Board of Transport Commissioners for approval of by-law No. 1157, prohibiting sounding of any engine whistle or ringing of any bell at rail crossings within the city limits, except in cases where necessary to prevent an accident.

Two months later the board's inspectors, local railway officials and the city engineer inspected all city crossings, and recommended certain protection in the form of road stop signs, railway stops and flashing lights.

RECOMMENDATIONS MADE

In April of this year a further inspection was made by the board's signal engineer, rail officials and the city engineer.

As a result of these inspections, the Board of Transport Commissioners recommends the following protection:

Road stop signs at 82 street and 113 avenue, 92 street and 106 avenue, 111 avenue and 84 street, 114 avenue and 81 street, 120 avenue and 74 street, 111 avenue and 121 street, both sides of E.Y. and P. under high level bridge on road to park, at 84 avenue and E. Y. and P., 104 street and 85 avenue, 83 avenue and 102 street.

Railway stop signs at 127 street and 107 avenue, McDougall Hill and E. Y. and P., 98 avenue and 102 street, 97 avenue and 104 street, 104 street and Rossdale Road, Connors Road and E. Y. and P.;

Flashing lights at 82 street and 113 avenue, 66 street and 126 avenue, 127 street and 127 avenue, 118 avenue and 121 street, 116 street and 104 avenue, 82 aveue and 102 street, and 116 street and 105 avenue.

If the north CNR line between 66 street and 107 street is included in the by-law flashing light is recommended for 97 street and 127 avenue and road stops are suggested for 82 street and 126 avenue.

Ration Hits Sweet Tooth

Britons, who accept stringent rationing of necessities without question are extremely vocal in their protests against restrictions imposed on distribution of candies.

This was reported here by George H. Steer, K.C., Edmonton barrister, who returned today from Britain where he appeared before the privy council.

Bacon and fats are in extremely short supply, Mr. Steer said. Only once during his sojourn in England was bacon served.

Britishers state that Canadian bacon is the best offered on the markets.

Mr. Steer appeared before the privy council in the appeal by Abasand Oils Ltd., against judgment of supreme court of Canada setting aside $100,000 judgment in favor of the company and against Boiler Inspection and Insurance Co. of Canada.

Vandals Cause Heavy Damage

Somebody seems to have a grudge against Lucy Export Co. Ltd., 8645 Stadium Road.

Company reported that recently its yard was entered, and culprits started a tractor and ran it into an elevator.

Total of $600 damage was done to tractor and elevator.

Steve Bezubiak, 11821 68 street, reported theft of a $20 seat cover from his car. Seat cover was stolen while auto was parked by his house.

BY-LAW WILL STAY

Rover, Prince and Others Refused Freedom Deal

City dogs—and their owners—won't be treated any differently, despite appearance of a Humane Society delegation yesterday before bylaws committee of city council.

Neither will the city stipulate that persons who complain to police about someone else's canine friend kicking up a rumpus will be obliged to supply their names and addresses.

The dogged delegation asked particularly that accusers of unruly canines be induced, compelled or invited to furnish their names and also to appear in court to support their charges.

Dogs are a big asset to women and children, the Humane Society women contended, especially to families where the husband works at night. A dog restrained by chain or rope at night isn't much good as a watchdog, they said as they asked for leniency in enforcement of the dog bylaw to cover such cases.

When the bylaw was read at Mayor H. D. Ainlay's suggestion, it devolped that as long as a dog is "under control" it won't suffer the dog catcher's enveloping grasp. The bylaw doesn't specify that dogs must be restrained by a leash, as do dog bylaws in five other western cities cited by the mayor.

During all the 15 years since enactment of the bylaw here, no complaints were registered against it until council proposed a change which eases treatment of offenders, the mayor said.

(Council recently amended the measure to provide "cafeteria fines" which in effect relieve offenders of long court waits and court costs, leaving only a $1 fine).

Ald. Fred Mitchell objected strenuously to "discriminate gathering of dogs" by police recently. He thought it showed police didn't want a bylaw they "couldn't enforce."

The delegation thought it all to the good that dogs chasing cars be picked up, and the whole discussion came to rest on Ald. Athelstan Bisset's suggestion that everybody wait and see how the bylaw amendment works out.

Stormy Meeting Protests Fees

Beverly Residents Angered As Education Costs Rise

Edmonton isn't the only community bursting its britches because of the oil boom.

Beverly's seams are starting to creak under the strain.

Beverly is the town that begins where Edmonton leaves off, out along the north bank of the Saskatchewan River.

Last night the town hall, jammed with 21 stout burghers with fire in their eye to do battle with the town council, echoed to the noisy ravages of progress.

Council itself flared up bitterly in its own ranks, and finally sidestepped the blast's hottest scorch by suggesting a mass turnout at a special meeting called for Friday, August 12 in the United Church.

THIS STARTED IT

Protests started over a school board decision that it can't finance school repairs and extensions and at the same time continue to pay all tuition fees for Beverly high school students attending Edmonton schools.

For years all through depression times, the board has provided funds for students to continue their education in Edmonton. Present charge is $115 per pupil per year, and next January 1 the fee will jump to $125 each.

Faced with formidable problems in repairing the brick grade school, the board decided to henceforth pay only $35 towards each pupil's tuition in Edmonton high schools.

Indignant citizens quickly circulated a petition asking the town council to formally oppose the move, and presented it at last night's regular council meeting.

MAYOR WON'T SIGN

Tempers of both councillors and petitioners flared when Mayor Albert Hairsine refused to put the question to a vote. Councillor Jim Mills seized the document, signed his name and challenged others to do the same, to prove where they stood.

The mayor refused to sign, and maintained the matter was no immediate concern of council, since a special school board meeting already had been called Aug. 10 to discuss the thorny problem.

School board member A. O. Setzer put the nightcap on the furore by upbraiding the citizenry in general for "not paying any attention to school affairs until something like this comes along.

"Nobody turns up for meetings of the board, and when nominations were open recently to fill a board vacancy, not one person volunteered.

"I suggested the resolution about fees just to get some action," he said, " and I certainly got it!"

Notices have been posted indicating intention to raise a $40,000 debenture for a new school. But hardly anybody mentioned that last night.

Six Veterans Win Prizes

Names of six winners of the Veterans' Land Act small holding development competition were announced today by Louis Scott, district supervisor of VLA small holding division.

Grierson Estate winners are: H. C. Keen, C. W. Pollard, T. A. McKinley, J. F. Wallace, and J. H. Williams.

Vegreville subdivision winner is M. Craddock.

Three judges chose winners with regard to general layout, produce grown, quality of crops, standard of maintenance, and other factors.

Committee Considers Easy Bonding

An easier path loomed yesterday for establishment of several types of small business in the city.

Council by-laws committee gave its blessing to a proposal to make bonding less difficult for aspiring used car dealers, plasterers, and paper hangers or decorators.

At present, bonds by insurance companies are required of certain trades or businesses before the city issues a license.

Amounts are $3,000 for used car dealers, $2,000 for plasterers, and $1,000 for painters or decorators, for protection of the public from any loss directly due to failure of licensee to properly carry out a contract.

City commissioners reported difficulty of some aspiring businessmen to obtain an insurance company's bond because their assets were insufficient to meet the company's requirements. But in each case the applicant's assets were such that he could furnish his own security up to the required amount for his category.

They recommended to by-laws committee that it amend the license by-law to give commissioners discretion to accept security from applicants to the amount of the necessary bond in lieu of a bond from an insurance company.

"The security could be a cash deposit, bonds, personal securities or the like. Aim would be to protect the public without barring from business certain reputable but small scale businessmen whose assets may be insufficient to obtain a bond from an insrance company."

Committee agreed.

Soap Plant Coming Here

Latest addition to Edmonton's industrial roster is a soap manufacturing concern.

Buildig permit for $3,000 soap manufacturing building at 12554-71 street was issued today to Trail Concreto Products Ltd.

Permits were also granted for a total of 14 houses at a cost of $98,000. Five of them will be built by L. Chiswell at 66 avenue and 108 street.

Anglican Camp Well Attended

About 70 persons attended the Anglican Young People's camp held recently at Kapasiwin.

Dance, men's fashion show, flag raising ceremony, Holy Communion, sports, fireside songs, and skits filled the week-end.

Elections for the new council executive were held. Officers include: Peter Cuff, president; May Johnson, vice president; Joan Waithe, treasurer; Lorraine Blair, corresponding secretary; Mavis Robinson, recording secretary.

CATTLE MENACED BY LEAD POISONING

Small groups of Alberta cattle are dying of lead poisoning.

No, it's not the old western-style "lead poisoning" that comes out of the end of a gun.

It's lead poisoning which cattle get from eating paint.

Dr. E. E. Ballantyne, provincial director of veterinary services, yesterday reminded farmers and stockmen of the dangers that may arise from old paint cans and battery plates.

He said that several small groups of cattle in the province have died from lead poisoning from eating paint and even lead battery plates.

"Paint is the most frequent cause of lead poisoning," said Dr. Ballantyne. "Cattle will lick paint from boards and from discarded paint cans."

Usually cattle will not consume paint if they have access to salt and bonemeal. Paint cans and battery plates should be discarded in areas fenced off from cattle.

Prompt treatment by a veterinarian is advised if cattle have eaten lead compounds.

"Grain treated with mercurial or arsenical compounds is also poisonous to livestock," said Dr. Ballantyne.

ALBERTA MEN FLYING

Two Alberta fliers took off from St. Hubert field near Montreal Thursday with a flight of five jet fighters which will take part in a display of aerobatics at the Michigan State Fair.

The fighter team includes Flt. Lt. Don Laubman, DFC and bar, Edmonton and Provost and Joe Schultz, DFC and bar, Bashaw.

VISITING BACK HOME

Back in Edmonton for a visit after 30 years is Dr. A. T. Kibzey, senior psychiatrist on the staff of the Pontiac State Hospital, Pontiac, Mich.

Travelling with the doctor through Canada are his wife and 11-year-old daughter, Yvonne.

Born in the Ukraine, Dr. Kibzey graduated in medicine from McGill University in 1924.

He began his medical studies at the University of Alberta in 1918.

FOUR EDMONTONIANS NAMED

Four Edmonton men have been appointed to the provincial board of examiners under the Chiropody Act, it was announced today.

Named chairman of the board is S. H. McCuaig, well-known Edmonton lawyer, while J. F. Ridgedale, Rev. Canon C. F. A. Clough and Lt-Col. E. Brown, are named board members.

Remaining board member is R. H. McCartney of Calgary.

OIL MAN HERE

Toronto oil tycoon George W. Webster is in Edmonton conferring with Eric L. Harvie, K.C., Calgary, on future development plans for Western Leaseholds Ltd., in the Redwater field. Mr. Webster is a former president and general manager of Abasand Oils Ltd.

EASTERNERS ARRIVE

Fourteen Montreal and Quebec city residents arrived in Edmonton today in the course of an educational tour of western Canada.

Organized under the auspices of "Canada Voyage" the party is headed by A. Langlois, Montreal.

While here they will tour the city and visit the Leduc oil fields.

The party will leave Friday for Jasper Park and Vancouver, and will return to Quebec by Lake Louise, Calgary and other CPR points.

DEPUTY EXPECTED

H. J. Wilson, K.C., Alberta deputy attorney general will return to Edmonton Monday from a trip to England where he represented Alberta at a hearing before the Privy Council.

Case was an appeal of the attorney general of B.C. against a Canadian court judgment involving an action taken by the CPR concerning hours of work.

D. A. APPOINTED

Appointment of W. A. Ross as district agriculturist at Westlock was announced today by Agriculture Minister Hon. D. A. Ure.

Mr. Ross, who has been assistant district agriculturist at Athabaska since the spring of 1948, succeeds James A. Goode, who has resigned.

The new district agriculturist is a graduate of the University of Alberta and an ex-serviceman. He will take up his new duties immediately.

Permanent Town Planning

As urged by The Edmonton Bulletin for months, the finance committee at last has recommended to the city council appointment of a permanent expert town planner and additional assistance in town planning if necessary.

We presume the "additional assistance" means something in the nature of a town planning survey which obviously should precede or immediately follow the appointment of a permanent town planner.

As The Bulletin has often pointed out, there is no use engaging a town planning expert on a permanent basis until that expert has been given some overall plan to work to.

It is true that the permanent expert could make his own master plan. But it would be much simpler and easier and perhaps less expensive to give him the assistance of other experts in making the initial investigations.

It is no routine job to survey, from a town planning aspect, a city of the size of Edmonton.

And the preparation of a master plan must be without mistakes. It should be checked and counterchecked. A board of at least three experts, therefore, should be engaged in the making of it.

This decision on the part of the finance committee to appoint a permanent town planner is another step towards a greater Edmonton.

It is another substantial break in the wall of obduracy, archaic thinking and alibis that has frequently been erected to block progress in this city.

Just as stubborn adherence to old ideas was broken down in the case of the asphalt street paving experiments, so has it broken down in the case of expert town planning.

But a permanent town planner will be of little use unless he is given authority to carry out his professional duties without constant interference from self-appointed experts in the civic block.

The permanent town planner must have the last word on town planning. If he becomes the errand boy of the city commissioners, he will be entirely useless.

The city council should see to it that no such calamity occurs.

High Costs of Hospitalization

If, as reported, the city of Edmonton is making up a deficit in the Royal Alexandra Hospital which is partly caused by losses incurred in the treatment of non-Edmonton people, the provincial government should obviously contribute to the balancing of that deficit.

The Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross has refused to do so. This means that Edmonton is subsidizing other municipalities, in this respect, to the extent of some $80,000 a year.

Dr. Cross is reported to have said that if the hospital doesn't pay its own way, it must raise its rates.

That may be a good business maxim. But surely it doesn't apply to those hundreds of patients who need hospitalization but have no hope in the world of paying for it.

Surely Dr. Cross' attitude in this matter is not the attitude of the entire provincial cabinet.

But there is another factor to be considered before the whole question of deficits on rural patients is laid at the minister's door.

And that is the question of economy of operation.

It is a constant source of astonishment to laymen, including ourselves, that while hotels can operate at a profit, hospitals are always losing money.

Hospitals charge higher rates than good hotels. The bulk of their labor costs little or nothing. Such extras as drugs, operating room costs and special treatments are given at a price that should ensure a good profit.

Why, then, should hotels make money while hospitals, with lower costs, lose it?

It is all very well to jump on Dr. Cross for his attitude towards this deficit. If the circumstances are as represented, he should be assailed.

But, first of all, let the city be very sure that part of this deficit cannot be traced to uneconomical operation.

Some White Lines Invisible

The white lines dividing Edmonton streets into traffic lanes represent good, sound, modern traffic practice and the police department is doing a good job of enforcing the law which says that vehicles must keep to their chosen lanes and not leave them without giving a proper signal.

The idea is splendid.

But the operation of it is not working out so well for the simple reason that a good many of the white lines have become almost invisible.

Certainly many of them are invisible to motorists at the 30 to 40 feet ahead which constitute the driver's normal line of vision.

It is next to impossible for a traffic cop to give a driver a ticket for wandering in and out of a traffic lane when the driver can discern the lane markings only with the utmost difficulty.

If this traffic lane system is going to work, the white lines must be made heavy enough in the first place.

And in the second place they must be constantly maintained and renewed.

The essence of the scheme is that the lines be plainly visible at all times,

Some of them are not.

Royal Family Costs Nothing

A mean and stupid Communist attack on the cost of refitting Clarence House in London for the Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh impels the thought that the British government should issue a plain statement to the whole Commonwealth on just what royalty costs and just what it brings in.

There is a silly notion that royalty is expensive.

As a matter of fact, the King makes over the income of his private property to the state and draws back only a fraction of its total.

Thus, out of the Duchy of Lancaster alone, to say nothing of other properties, the state makes a profit of several hundreds of thousands of pounds a year.

In reality, the Royal Family not only costs nothing to maintain, but actually brings in a good revenue to the state.

Confusion of Thought In Schools Controversy

The controversy between Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and her defenders has engendered more light than heat, by introducing preposterous irrelevancies, such as whether or not Mrs. Roosevelt is a good kind woman without religious prejudices.

THOMPSON

Cardinal Spellman made himself partly responsible for this unpleasant and unenlightening feature of the debate by calling Mrs. Roosevelt anti-Catholic.

He would, I think, have done better to have clarified the issue, apart from personalities, beyond pointing out that Mrs. Roosevelt's espousal of the Barden Bill on the ground of separation of church and state was misleading of the issue.

In the opinion of this columnist, Mrs. Roosevelt did confuse the issue, and Cardinal Spellman's argument is morally and constitutionally correct.

As a result of Mrs. Roosevelt's interpretations, many think she is opposing a determined effort to obtain federal funds for the support of parochial schools.

But public support of parochial schools is not involved in the Barden Bill at all!

Child Guidance

A school is an institution for the education and guidance of children and youth.

The American constitution has been interpreted as prohibiting religious instruction or denominational control of schools.

Thousands of Catholic parents wish their children to have a religiously guided education and therefore send them to parochial schools, which, as far as secular education is concerned, conform to the standards set for all schools by the state boards of education.

Parochial schools—their buildings and their teaching staffs—are supported by the church.

They receive no state or federal funds, nor are they asking for any.

That is the first thing every reader must get clear.

It is precisely this that Mrs. Roosevelt, in a vague way, confused by saying these and other private schools "should receive no tax funds whatsoever" and that "the separation of church and state is extremely important to any of us who hold to the original traditions of our nation."

The federal aid involved, which Mr. Barden and Mrs. Roosevelt would prohibit to all except public-school children, has nothing whatever to do with education.

It has to do with child welfare—free bus transportation to secure safety and punctuality, free non-religious text books, health checkups, free lunches, milk.

A bus is neither Catholic, Protestant, Jewish nor atheist.

Neither are the elements of geometry, nor inflamed tonsils, nor a glass of milk.

The services are not given to schools, they are given to school children and the parents of school children.

The schools, in which the children are gathered, are merely used as a convenient means of distributing these services.

Furthermore, they are paid for by all parents—whether they send their children to public, parochial or private school.

And if these services, primarily concerned with safety and health, are refused some children on the preposterous grounds of the separation of church and state, then, in all conscience, the parents of such children should be exempted from taxation to pay for them.

Pay for Schools

Catholic parents already help pay for the public schools, though many prefer religiously guided education.

That is an act of free choice.

But access to public schools is not denied to them.

They naturally wish their children to receive the material benefits afforded other children via schools.

The Barden Bill denies them.

It says, in effect: "You have a constitutional right to give your child a religiously guided education, but if you exercise it, you'll get no free milk or health checkups." And in this sense it is anti-Catholic, in effect if not intention.

Mrs. Roosevelt has not presented one reasonable argument for this unquestionably discriminatory denial.

When people do not argue in reason from the facts, they are usually regarded as arguing from prejudice.

In this case, however, I think Mrs. Roosevelt is merely suffering from confusion of the categories.

Keeping Milk Sweet

Editor, Bulletin.—Just a few lines on the subject of sweet milk. A little care in the handling of milk will solve the problem very easily. For those with no refrigerator and a basement, set on basement floor as soon as received. Don't let it sit out in the sun or warm kitchen. And for those with no basement, dig a hole on the side of the house and set in a box in hole. Or for those in apartments use a thermos bottle or jug.

If a little care is taken we will have no more complaints regarding sour milk.

I never have any, and I have no frig.

I know there are not many children living in suites as they are not permitted, and the only ones who complain are the ones who are careless, so let's use a little commonsense and remember to remove your milk immediately to a cool place.

Dislike The Type

Editor, Bulletin—I read with interest every night your column "Letters to the Editor." I have followed the letters lately about Canada and the Old Country. There have been many letters to which I would have liked to reply but never have. The one on Aug. 2, signed "Fair for Canada" has tempted me to write.

This person says that one thing about a Canadian is his big mouth. May I remind him that the majority of us have originated from the old country. That is to say our parents and their parents before them have come from the Old Country. So you see if we have big mouths where did we get them from?

He or she has also remarked about the loafers in Canada. If there are such people here it is only because of the immigrants coming. You people have been used to lower wages and therefore the employers are going to hire you before they hire a Canadian.

If you people think that just because you are from the Old Country we are going to bow down to you, you can think again.

There is no class distinction in Canada. No person here is any better than the next one. I grant you there are many that think so but you will find some like that no matter where you go. We can only mark that feeling up to ignorance.

If you people who have come out here don't like it, please, oh please, go back. We didn't ask for your type out here. In fact I think many of us have become very sick and tired of hearing your beef. We Canadians won't miss you at all. We have taken a good many insults from you. Thank God there are not many like you.

Canadian.

Require Tolerance

Editor, Bulletin—Please don't be so hard on us. Surely it is obvious we do love this country. Why else would we stay?

There has yet never been an immigrant who hasn't felt homesick and blue at times. Maybe a little neighborly tolorance and understanding and "Once Bitten, Twice Shy," and "Londoner," wouldn't have felt the need to put their feelings into print.

Honest Racing

Editor, Bulletin—Poor Jockey Godley. Well he got what any jockey should get. But how about the despicable crook who was responsible for his demise?

Any man who tries that system is a bigger crook than the poor jockey. He would do the same thing in a business deal; he even reneged on the betting, instead of his $500 he only bet $300 and it is a sure thing if he had been a winner the gain would have all gone into his pocket. For the paltry sum of $300 he took away the livelihood of a young man, not that the jockey was right, but he did his best to bring his nag in.

An example had to be made but the person who lost his paltry $300 was a miserable cheat.

Teacher Shortage

Editor, Bulletin—I wish to thank you for your editorial that appeared in the July 28 issue of the Edmonton Bulletin entitled "Another Alternative in Education."

The present attitude of the government towards education in Alberta has worried teachers considerably in that the government appears to be counting on the 500 scholarships to decrease the shortage which, according to our information, will be worse this year than ever before, and which can only be remedied by making the conditions of employment attractive to young people. It is questionable if the scholarships will attract very many high school graduates into education as long as the salaries and working and living conditions, in rural areas particularly, are not improved.

At the present time school costs are relatively so low that the efficiency is not only impaired but there is no adequate schooling available to many children in the rural parts of Alberta.

From Today's News

By JAMES D. WHITE

The official United States side of what has been happening in China is made public today.

Judging from early press summaries, the state department's long white paper tells, on the whole, little that has not been known or surmised.

But it gives detailed reasons for the end of one policy toward China—and east Asia—and opens the way toward creation of a new one.

State secretary Dean Acheson says that the United States must "encourage all developments" in China aimed at throwing off the "foreign yoke" of Moscow-directed Communism.

The policy itself remains to be shaped, by a special board, and the job is a tough one for many reasons. Some formula must be hammered out that will fit in with the people most concerned—those in Asia. It has to satisfy their chief criticism of the old policy—that we pay too much attention to Europe.

In the United States, internal political differences over China and Asiatic policy could strongly influence what comes out in the end.

The administration seeks to get other measures through congress too, and compromise may result.

But Asia herself may try to influence the policy. Any grave crisis there might well subordinate the need for long-term planning to that of meeting an emergency. This is possible because the instruments the United States seeks to use in her global battle against Russian Communism do not always behave according to American wishes.

Such an instrument was Chiang Kai-Shek of China. The white paper tells how he got American aid, but did not use it effectively. He lost the support of his people. His armies lost the will to fight. Chiang failed. The policy failed.

But Chiang Kai-Shek still is around. He still heads the party that runs what is left of non-Communist China. The refugee government through which this is done has just put its economy on a silver currency basis, without enough silver to do the job.

In New York, Chiang's brother-in-law, Dr. H. H. Kung, calls for an American silver loan to help out. This puts to the United States this question: supporting this currency or be responsible for the consequences; are you fighting Communism or not?

Again, Chiang Kai-Shek has launched an anti-Communist "Pacific Union" with President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines and President Syngman Rhee of southern Korea. Will the United States support this anti-Communist alliance? It includes Chiang, whom the white paper today paints as pretty hopeless.

It seems clear that the shaping of future American policy in Asia is susceptible to pressure from Asia itself. It could come from leaders who have to think of their own survival.

Why Should Canada Turn Over Iron Ore To United States?

In a recent issue of Newsweek, Raymond Moley calmly points out that future supplies of American iron depend either upon new processes for low-grade ore, or importing high-grade ore from some of the vast new discoveries in Newfoundland.

It all sounds very simple. But he neglects to explain why Canada should turn over her ore supplies to the United States. He simply assumes she will and I am afraid we in Canada do the same.

Yet why should we.

The United States did not reach her industrial supremacy by shipping her minerals and other resources to Europe for processing. She undertook to do her own manufacturing and thereby laid the foundations of her present economy.

It has been pointed out by many that Canada is on the eve of a similiar commercial and industrial development. But it will be a long, cold eve if we keep handing over everything we have, thereby wiping out our opportunity. A very real opportunity in view of the international shortage of many of the things we still have in tremendous quantity.

We Will Receive Millions

Some people will immediately argue we will receive millions of easy dollars by selling these raw materials to those coming to remove them. Yes, we will receive millions and then we will turn around and pay out billions for the finished products made from our own resources. That is just the trouble.

The same applies to other Canadian raw materials. We are so anxious to sell out for a few immediate dollars that we lose sight of the long term possibilities.

The United States would still be a small unimportant nation had she been content to ship food and raw materials to Europe. But she saw her opportunity. She had the essential raw materials and if other nations wanted the goods which could be made from those raw materials they found they had to buy the finished goods, not the raw materials.

Since they had to come to the United States for many things, it provided the boost that got American industry into the mass production stage.

Now there is a change.

The United States is running short of some materials while Canada is the nation with vast reserves. But instead of learning the lesson taught by American industrial history, Canada is too ready to pass out what she has, allowing the nations with the established industries to reap the benefit.

Canada Could Refuse

Suppose Canada refused to export iron ore. The U.S.A. would then either have to secure other supplies, which is not easy, or else use more costly methods to utilize the marginal ores. That gives Canada a tremendous oppirtunity to compete in world markets and thereby build up our own industrial production, which is already large.

The United States is a big competitor with many resources, yet Canada enjoys a strategic position in the matter of materials which is steadily improving while that of the United States and other nations is getting worse.

It is not necessary to think in terms of cut throat competition. It is only necessary to take advantage of onr own favorable position. It is like a store-keeper who finds himself stocked up with something the public wants when his competitors are running short.

Such a store-keeper would not divide up what he has with his big competitor and lose his business advantage.

Such a merchant would use this good fortune to build up his own trade.

Not so long ago Canadians were short of steel because we could not secure enough from the American mills. Yet why should we have to depend upon them when they are apparently going to depend upon us. Why not make our own steel from our own ores and let these other nations buy the finished product from us.

Do not imagine that a change in policy would reverse trade standings this year or the next. Do not forget either that it is not so many years since the United States was immature industrially.

Canada, if she does not throw away her opportunity, can make even faster progress.

Should One Write For Art's Sake Or Just For Money?

For a moment there I was going to start this column with a lie. I was going to say that it grieves me that Arthur "Bill" Mayse, formerly of these parts, has written a financially successful novel.

But that would be a lie. Bill collected something like $15,000 from the Saturday Evening Post which ran his "Perilous Passage" in serial form. He may earn as much again from the book version, now published by William Morrow and Company. If Hollywood decides to buy he will get Fort Knox. It is pretty hard to feel sorry for the guy who hits the jackport.

Still, I find "Perilous Passage" a terrible let-down and depressing evidence that another Canadian of greater promise has made an unfortunate choice between commercial success and something more lasting.

This is a slick, tightly-plotted adventure story, expertly tailored to the demands of people who buy weekly magazines and about as lasting a piece of fiction as yesterday's comic strip. It is at once professional and shallow craftsmanship in writing, a void of emotion.

I make this gloomy report about a friend only because he has so much more to offer. There aren't half a dozen Canadian writing men with as much pure creative ability as Bill Mayse. What's more, he is a thoughtful, sensitive person.

In my view he has made a serious mistake by devoting all his time and energy to mastering the formula for high-priced, but transient, magazine literature. He has done this at the expense of his own talent and ability, perhaps at the expense of a great Canadian novel.

Makes Choice

A day or two after putting down "Perilous Passage" I happened to lunch with a couple of gents who also write for a living. When I expressed my views about Bill Mayse and his choice they both dissented.

"What's a guy to do?" one of them put it. "If he has a family, as Bill has, he can't afford to take a gamble. He's got to think about those groceries and not about any so-called artistic success. Mayse has got into the big money. He has the stuff to stay there. I don't think you can under-estimate his success by just dreaming about what he might have done."

Well, maybe so. I know that W. O. Mitchell, another fine Canadian writer, wrote a beautifully artistic and moving novel called "Who Has Seen The Wind" and while it created something of an artistic success it didn't do anything impressive to Mitchell's bank acount. As far as I know it wasn't even published in the United States although it's far above the average of the current run of American novels.

Still Mayse owed himself that gamble. Almost any of the big names in writing you care to mention got their start by taking the risk, by having enough confidence in their own ideas to resist writing by order. For that is what Saturday Evening Post writing is. There is a certain market there, a demand for a precision product. It is not literature, but a business proposition. And when you accept such terms you automatically pervert the creative ability.

Leslie Roberts, who is Canada's top free lance writer, spoke of this when he was last out here.

"The danger in writing to a formula for a slick paper magazine is that it becomes a habit," he told me. "You write what somebody else wants. You make a product for sale by somebody else's specifications. You become a kind of literary carpenter instead of the architect. They call it the popular market. Nothing has done more to kill real talent."

The subject is one that interests me because it is by no means limited to the writer or artist. It seems to me we all fight a cold war with ourselves, a battle between doing what we want to do and what we feel we have to do.

I know dozens of men, who are in various lines of endeavor only because it offers them a financial return and security. How many men do you know who go through their lives hating their work, doing it only because of that pay cheque? Yet dream of some other vocation to which they could give heart and soul?

Colorful Priest Sparks Prayer Crusade Here

Roman Catholic laymen of western Canada will form an army 40,000 strong to crusade for the restoration of family prayer.

Crusade plans were outlined at a dinner meeting in the Macdonald hotel last night attended by some 400 of the clergy and laymen under the chairmanship of Most Rev. John Hugh MacDonald, Roman Catholic archbishop of Edmonton.

Sparking the campaign which will be carried out in every Catholic diocese from Manitoba to the Pacific coast and in Alaska, is big, tousle-headed Rev. Father Patrick Peyton of California.

Originator of the Hollywood radio program "The Family Theatre," Father Peyton has devoted the last eight years to similar crusades on behalf of family prayer.

The forthcoming crusade in western Canada will have the Family Theatre radio program slogan: "The family which prays together stays together."

In simple but forceful words, Irish-born Father Peyton told last night's gathering why he decided to devote his life to the unceasing advocacy of family prayers.

Born of poor, hard-working parents, the priest was one of nine children.

His earliest recollections as a child were of his mother and father kneeling in prayer in the kitchen of their home, he told his listeners.

POTATO PICKER

He remembers how he and his small brothers and sisters would imitate their parents.

One time as a child he was picking potatoes at a neighbor's home. After supper he waited and waited for the people of the house to say family prayers but they went to bed without saying them.

So shocked was young Peyton that he scolded the farmer the next day although he was only a lad of 13.

As a young man he came to America with a brother with the intention of becoming a coal miner. Coal mines weren't so busy so he became a janitor. But he had always yearned to become a priest and finally his prayers were answered and he started the long course of studies.

Just two years before he was to be ordained tragedy struck Peyton in the form of tuberculosis.

SELF-STYLED FANATIC

Doctors told him he would have to have several operations involving the removal of 11 ribs.

Peyton decided to try prayer instead of the surgeon's knife and recovered.

Two years later he was ordained a priest.

"Is it any wonder I'm a fanatic for family prayer?" Father Peyton asked.

The speaker said the power of prayer made possible the start of The Family Theatre broadcasts.

When he first got the idea for family prayer propaganda broadcasts, Father Peyton prayed to the Virgin Mary for help. Then he telephoned Bing Crosby in Hollywood and the great screen star agreed to help.

"How else but through prayer would I have been able to even get Crosby on the phone?" asked Father Peyton.

CRUSADE HERE

Other great stars such as Irene Dunne, Eddie Cantor and Jack Benny are also giving their time free to the broadcasts which are non-sectarian.

Mutual broadcasting system donates $15,000 worth of free network time each week.

Now a movie has been made: "The road to peace is prayer."

Objective of the crusade in western Canada is a family rosary in every Catholic home.

Crusade will be held in September and October with the clergy in every diocese throwing all their weight behind the campaign.

Archbiship MacDonald said a great deal depends on the outcome of the crusade. Unless there is a resoration of family prayer and true Christian love in the hearts of men our generation faces a slavery more terrible than the slaveries of ancient Greece and Rome, he warned.

Bishop Neil N. Savaron, heading the Ukrainian Catholic diocese of Western Canada, spoke briefly in support of the campaign in Ukrainian.

Rev. J. G. Leblanc of Montreal, who is assisting Father Peyton in organizing the crusade, spoke in French.

Fred Colborne, MLA of Calgary addressed the gathering as a leader in the lay campaign.

James Dunn, of Vancouver, charged jointly with Post, was given a similar sentence.

Tito Supports Soviet Rebels

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Aug. 5.—(UP)—Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia took the offensive in his cold war with the Cominform yesterday by promising help to any popular uprising against the Pro-Soviet Communist regimes in neighboring Bulgaria and Albania.

At the same time he warned that neither Russia nor America would be able to divert Yugoslavia from the road to socialism which the country's 16,000,000 inhabitants are following under his command.

Police Nab Two In Dope Drive

Constable Poses As Addict To Obtain Much Evidence

RCMP narcotics squad, continuing its drive on Edmonton dope circles, has brought two more "junkers" to Supreme Court trial.

Stanley Chapman and Elmer Bardenhagen, both of Argyle House, appeared in city police court yesterday and were speedily committed to stand trial at the next assizes of criminal court.

The Mounties produced enough evidence to make two charges stand: one of illegal sale of narcotics and one of illegal possession.

Police "got the goods" on the two men when RCMP Cont. Scafteld, posing as an addict, bought heroin from both of them.

Corporal H. M. Silver, head of the narcotics squad, testified that marked bills had been used for both purchases.

A box of empty capsules, a bent spoon and a pair of rubber gloves, found in or just outside their rooms, piled up evidence against the two accused.

Const. Scafteld testified he had watched Chapman and a man named "Kelly" having a "fix" in Chapman's room.

"Kelly" had been used by the police to arrange a meeting between the police officer and the "junk pushers."

Wheat Board Makes Plans

WINNIPEG, Ag. 5—(CP)—The Canadian Wheat Board yesterday announced it will use sales procedures which "it considers desirable and advantageous," including the futures market, insofar as disposal of oats and barley is concerned.

The announcement followed federal authorization, effective Aug. 1, for the board to take over marketing of the two coarse grains.

Previously they had been traded on the Winnipeg grain exchange outside board jurisdiction.

Pedestrian Chaser Fined At Toronto

TORONTO, Aug. 5. — (CP) — Motorist Dennis Colville, 22, described by police as a pedestrian chaser, was convicted on careless driving yesterday and fined $25 or 10 days in jail.

Police said Colville was seen driving his automobile at pedestrians as they attempted to cross the street.

BEEKEEPERS TO BUZZ OFF

Beekeepers of Edmonton and Westlock are planning a busman's holiday.

A giant field day has been planned for Sunday, with a tour of several commercial apiaries and a visit to an extracting plant rounding out the day.

The beemen will hear informative addresses by Tom Davis, well known bee breeder of Sacramento, Cal., and by H. D. Philpott of Brooks, president of Alberta Beekeepers' Association.

East Police Check Gets 'Armed' Man

PORT CREDIT, Ont., Aug. 5—A motorist here gave police an added touch yesterday while they were checking automobiles for trace of two Toronto killers.

They halted a big, black sedan and when the owner appeared reluctant to allow the inspection they became suspicious. A pea-shooter and a bag of peas was found on the front seat.

Russians Make New First Claim

LONDON, Aug. 5—(UP)—Radio Moscow said today that V. P. Filatove, Russian doctor, invented the operation to transplant corneas.

In an interview on the occasion of his 1,000th transplanting operation, Filatove said, "We can say with pride, that priority in transplanting the cornea belongs to Soviet Science.

FREE COLOUR WAFER IN EVERY PACKAGE

HAVE GOLDEN-YELLOW MARGENE
Remove Margene from its protective wrapping. Place in mixing bowl and let stand at room temperature until soft and pliable. (A minimum of 4 hours).
Step 1. Pull apart the colour wafer and let the powder sprinkle over the Margene. Work in lightly with a fork.
Step 2. With a mixing spoon, work the colour into the Margene until it is evenly distributed throughout. Line a moulding dish with two strips of waxed paper, as shown above.
Step 3. Transfer Margene from the bowl to the mould, pressing it well into the corners. Level off, fold waxed paper ends over the top and chill.
Step 4. To remove Margene, invert the moulding dish.

Landing Craft to Make 7,000-Mile North Trip

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 5—(CP)—The Yellowknife Expediter, a former United States landing barge, leaves here next week for service in frozen Northwest Territories.

But to get there, the sturdy little 160-foot craft will take a little-used roundabout route and plough through nearly 7,000 miles. It will encounter ice packs and frozen conditions in its far-north trip.

The Yellowknife Expediter, owned by Arctic Marine Ltd., a subsidiary of Yellowknife Transportation Company of Edmonton, will leave the Victoria machinery depot where conversion work has been underway since June.

She may pull up anchor Thursday or Friday.

She'll head north, touching at Dutch Harbor in the Aleutians, Bering Strait, Nome, Alaska, Point Barrow, and then will sail across the Beaufort Sea to the delta of the Mackenzie River.

Then her 12-man crew will take her 1,200 miles up the river to Great Slave Lake, where she will operate between Hay River, northern terminal of the Mackenzie highway on the south shore, to Yellowknife, 120 miles to the northeast.

SECOND BARGE

Early Harcourt, managing director of Yellowknife Transportation and of Arctic Marine, said today conversion of a second ex-landing barge will begin shortly and the second craft will be used as a cruising vessel on the Mackenzie river.

He feels the river has tourist attractions to equal the best in Canada.

"There is a great future for that northern country. At some places the river is four miles wide—and with snow-capped mountains in the background it can stand up against the best scenery in the country."

Commanding the Yellowknife Expediter is Capt. Frederick Coe of Vancouver. He expects to reach Great Slave Lake, seventh largest lake in the world, just ahead of the freeze-up.

The dairying industry of Canada is carried on most extensively in Ontario and Quebec.

Alta. Coal Output Is Showing Gains

Worst Seasonal Slack Since Before War Is Experienced

CALGARY, Aug. 5—(CP)—After suffering the worst seasonal slack since pre-war years Alberta's domestic coal industry is now beginning to increase its production and mines are keeping open more days a week, spokesmen for the industry said yesterday.

Increased production is also taking place in the bituminous coal fields. However, the bituminous fields, which produce largely for industrial consumption, did not suffer the same seasonal drop that the domestic fields had.

Domestic production for June this year was down 68,000 tons from 1948. During the war-years an all-year-round production was maintained because of increased demands for heating military establishments and also increased requirements in supplying eastern markets.

In 1948 a strike and cold weather early in the year caused reduced production which was partly responsible for maintaining summer production as the deficit was made up.

Domestic mines this year were reduced to an average of about two days' work a week in May and June but again are building up to a five-day production schedule. A number of bituminous mines dropped production to four days a week but many remained at full production as they have a more stable market with consumers such as railroads and industrial plants.

Prior to the war the seasonal slack was always in evidence and was one of the major problems of the domestic coal industry. Domestic producers have tried to alleviate the situation by getting consumers to buy their coal in summer months so as to even out the demand.

BATTLE IN WOODS

Man Gets His Bear— Uses Axe To Do It

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Aug. 5.—(CP) — Les Sharpe, Sault Ste. Marie steelworker, told today how he killed a 250-pound bear with an ax.

Sharpe and two friends, Frank Peary and George Cockwell, picking berries while vacationing near Otterhead on Lake Superior, sighted the bear. While Sharpe hid behind a tree with ax raised, his friends circled the bear and chased him past the hiding place. Sharpe struck the bear on the head.

"I stunned him somewhat," Sharpe said. "The bear seemed to buckle and go off balance for a moment. It was long enough for me to get set for a second blow. I hit him again, this time with the blade and caught him on the side of the neck. This made him mad and then I knew I was on the spot.

"He grabbed the ax with his teeth and caught at the handle. The bear grappled with me and with all my might, I twisted the ax away.

STATELY OLD MANSION in London is setting for dual romances, half a century apart, that motivate "Enchantment," now playing at Capitol Theatre. David Niven and Teresa Wright enact principal romance in which they share honors with Evelyn Keyes and Farley Granger.

Goldwyn Screen Offering 'Enchantment' Effective

Charm and distinction feature "Enchantment," Samuel Goldwyn's newest screen masterpiece which starts today at the Capitol Theatre.

David Niven, Teresa Wright, Evelyn Keyes and Farley Granger have stellar roles in the delightfully-told tale. It's of two love affairs that take place half a century apart, but both in the same setting, a stately and gracious old London home.

A young British subaltern and his father's pretty ward are principals in the earlier romance, which never cultimate because of family jealousy.

RETIRED GENERAL

But by the time the young officer has become a retired and embittered General, he finds himself an interested spectator of the second romance, between his American grand-niece and the nephew of his old fiancee.

At the crucial moment he triumphantly steps in to keep the pair suffering the same frustration that he did.

Niven and Miss Wright turn in brilliant performances in the earlier episode. Miss Keyes, as the American girl, and Granger, as the nephew, also deliver adequately as the modern romantic due.

ROLE STANDS OUT

Jayne Meadows' work as Niven's domineering sister stands out in the supporting cast which also has excellent portrayals by Leo. G. Carroll, Philip Friend, Henry Stephenson and little Gigi Perreau.

Gigi is the producer's latest discovery who plays Miss Wright as a child.

Irving Reis' sympathetic direction and John Patrick's adroitly-written screeplay and the Rumer Godden novel contribute to the film's stature. Theatregoers of all ages will find "Enchantment" enchanting.

Sam Spade Now Cowboy In New Film

When a suave, smooth-talking detective—or "private eye," as they are known in radio "crime" circles—dons boots and levis, mounts a bronco, and ropes himself a mermaid, that's news, even in Hollywood.

And that, more or less, is what happens in Universal-International's Technicolor adventure, "Red Canyon," now playing at the Rialto. Theatre. The "eye" in this case is Howard Duff, who turns his back on the Detective Sam Spade role for which he is known to CBS listeners, to play a hard-riding cowboy, to lasso a wild stallion.

SNARES ANN BLYTH

During the film, he catches the horse, and also a "wild filly," played by Ann Blyth, last seen as the fishtailed maiden in "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid." In addition to outwitting the horses and taming Miss Blyth, Duff must also contend with her father, enacted by George Brent.

"Red Canyon" is not Duff's first experience away from radio. The tall, dark-haired actor previously appeared on the screen in "Brute Force", "The Naked City" and "All My Sons," and will soon be seen in "Calamity Jane" and "Illegal Entry." A native of Bremerton, Wash., and an army veteran of the Pacific, he has been a radio actor and announcer for 10 years.

DESPERADOES AND HORSES provide thrills and high-powered excitement for the movie "Red Canyon," which opens at the Rialto today. Starred are lovely Ann Blyth and Howard Duff, Sam Spade of radio fame.

Miss Blyth, a petite brunette, will turn 21 next summer. Despite her youth, she has demonstrated a remarkable versatility in the type of screen roles she has played, including a scatter-brained bobby-soxer in "Chip Off the Old Block," a young "femme fatale" in "Mildred Pierce," and a conniving, willful woman in "Another Part of the Forest." She came to Hollywood from the Broadway stage, where her most memorable performance was in "Watch on the Rhine."

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Here's how love came to Jimmy Stewart.

Next Tuesday, bachelordom will lose one of its most noted members—the lanky James Stewart. On his last day of work in "Broken Arrow," I found him somewhat amazed at his forthcoming marriage to Gloria McLean.

"Gosh," he said, "I'm almost past the point of no return!"

Never much of a chatterbox, he revealed—after considerable prodding—some of the facts of his life with Gloria.

The pair met about a year ago when they were seated next to each other at a dinner party given by the Gary Coopers. Now that he thinks of it, Jimmy agrees that perhaps Mrs. Coop had matchmaking in mind.

A HIT

The twosome hit it off right away. They began dating and playing golf together.

Like many bridegrooms, Jimmy is not too good at dates. He figures it was a month or maybe two ago that he proposed. (Actually it was May.) The event took place at dinner at his house.

Jimmy gave his bride-to-be a solid gold compact instead of an engagement ring. She already has considerable jewelry. She was formerly wed to Ned McLean, son of Evelyn Walsh McLean, the late Washington hostess and owner of the Hope diamond.

Gloria, 31, has two sons, Ronald, five, and Michael, two.

The 41-year-old actor was asked if he thought marriage would change his life greatly.

"Now you ask me that question six months from now and I'll have a better answer for you," he replyed, adding:

"I'm not going into this thing lightly. After all, I'm geting a wife — and two sons."

MAYOR'S SANCTUM was crowded this morning as Toronto students jammed civic block office where chief magistrate outlined points of interest in city and district they plan to visit. Cross-Canada educational tour of Toronto secondary students is sponsored by The T. Eaton Co. and Toronto's Board of Education. Getting low-down from Mayor Ainlay here are John Bond, Bruce Jones, Bob Munns and W. "Skip" Jones.

Toronto Pupils Busy During Edmonton Tour

Hard work and diligence at study has its rewards.

Sixteen youths from Toronto's secondary schools who arrived in Edmonton Friday over CNR lines will agree to that.

They are members of the Canadian Education Tour, third of its kind sponsored by the Board of Education, City of Toronto, and The T. Eaton Company of Canada.

From Toronto's 16 secondary schools selected pupils annually are given an all-expenses-paid trip of familiarization to points within the Dominion.

The present 8,000-mile Toronto-to-Victoria and return junket is in charge of Gerald Allen, guidance director, Jarvis Collegiate Institute, Toronto. His Toronto colleagues include A. J. McAlister and William Bremner of Eaton's.

Party was greeted at Edmonton by W. E. Frame, chief superintendent of schools, representing the Alberta government, Chester E. Moffet and William Evans, representing Eaton's Edmonton branch.

"The whole trip hasn't had a dull moment," commented Mr. Allen.

Local itinerary calls for a busy day as Mayor Ainlay will testify. The travelling group descended upon his office during the morning and was given a general briefing on points of interest to be visited in the city and district during the day.

During the morning the group visited Eaton's, Victoria High School and was welcomed by Premier Manning in a tour of the Legislative building.

Noon luncheon at the Macdonald brought together two former colleagues in the field of athletics—Annis Stukus, coach of the Edmonton Eskimo football club, and Mr. Allen.

"Toronto's loss and Edmonton's gain," is how Allen characterized the new coach. He said Stukus had given great assistance to Toronto's Secondary School Athletic Association.

Second cousin of student John Bond, Mrs. N. V. Timmins and her 17-year-old blonde daughter, Trudy, of 12504 Stony Plain Road, were on hand to meet him for the first time.

"I have her 'phone number," declared John later—meaning Trudy, of course.

Afternoon program included swim at South Side Pool, a tour of the Imperial refinery, the Edmonton oil fields and the new oil town of Devon.

Mechanical engineering, architecture, medicine, commercial art were graduation goals set by most of the 16 students.

These views were expressed before they had toured the oilfields.

Out of the tour some may change their ambition to that of geology or petroleum engineering.

Party leaves tomorrow for Jasper in private sleeper.

Suburb Seeks Mail Delivery

The residents of 139 street think they're getting the "run-around" from the Post Office.

The Post Office disagrees.

Through their spokesman, Mrs. P. B. Rodger, 10339-139 street, residents of the new district have voiced a demand for door-to-door postal delivery service.

They have to pick up their mail at the main Post Office and they figure they should have it delivered.

A petition has been signed by about 32 residents of the area and forwarded to the postmaster here.

He has sent it to Ottawa with a full report of the situation.

First, lack of sidewalks and letter boxes held up delivery.

Now it is understood the people of 139 street will have to wait for the manpower situation to catch up with their needs.

The Post Office here is waiting for authority from Ottawa to take on additional carriers to handle delivery in the area.

Such authority is expected shortly.

Teacher Supply Shapes Up Well At Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Aug. 5.—(BUP)—The department of education announced today that for the first time since 1939 it hoped to start the school year without having to issue special teaching permits to unqualified teachers.

In 1939 the department issued teaching permits to students with no normal school training at all and in 1946, 876 such permits were issued.

Since then the number has been declining. This year the department hopes that all schools will have teachers with at least some normal school training.

Tour parties will be arranged, but in case of rain an indoor program will be held.

Record Tourist Business Done At Waterton

Alberta's tourist trade appears to be heading towards a record.

One national park in Southern Alberta, Waterton Lakes, reported to Dan E. Campbell, provincial director of tourist publicity, that tourists visiting there this season are almost double the number registered there last year.

To the end of July this year, 83,705 persons, travelling in 15,906 cars visited the park. Last year tourists numbered 43,992 and cars totalled 12,221.

Big month each year was July. In July 1949 56,533 persons were park visitors, compared to 32,709 during the same month of the previous year.

National Gallery Needs New Home

Director McCurry Heads Drive For Art Building

OTTAWA, Aug. 5—(CP)—H. O. McCurry, director of Canada's National Art Gallery, said today a new home for the gallery is "essential."

He proposed construction of a new building in Central Ottawa, devoted entirely to art.

Mr. McCurry appeared before the royal commission on art and science development as it continued to probe into the dominion's cultural growth and needs for development.

IN MUSEUM

The gallery, located for the last 30 years in the east wing of the national museum, about a mile from Parliament Hill, has "never had a building of its own," Mr. McCurry said in a brief prepared for presentation to the commission, headed by Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, chancellor of the University of Toronto.

Its present home was a fire hazard and was remote from the centre of the city. Accommodation was "hopelessly inadequate" and only 30 per cent of the total permanent exhibition could be placed on display at one time.

In the proposed structure three groups of galleries could be maintained. One would be for Old Masters and sculpture collections, another for Canadian and modern collections and a third for the Canadian war memorial group of paintings.

TEMPORARY STRUCTURE

Mr. McCurry recommended that an inexpensive, temporary pavilion be erected beside the present gallery, to remain there until the new building is built.

As to federal art policy, Mr. McCurry believed that Canadian art must have "its roots in the people themselves" to be a "living force in education and national life." It should not take the form of a pattern "imposed from above."

Nevertheless there were "wide and important fields" in which the national gallery could better serve the whole of Canada.

EXPAND LOANS

It could expand its system of loan exhibits from abroad and make them available to Canadian art galleries at lower cost.

It could carry Canadian art to other countries, especially those which have never seen Canadian exhibitions.

"From time to time it can to an increasing extent make special loans to other galleries in Canada of outstanding works from its permanent collection."

Park to Get Variety Show

Variety goes to Elk Island Park Sunday afternoon.

Under the direction of Claude Blackwood, entertainment will feature music, comedy and even magic for the afternoon audience.

Among the entertainers will be "Sandy the Magician" and Old Dad Taylor, Edmonton radio personality.

Recorded music will be heard in the late afternoon with the regular film showing beginning at sundown.

The program is being arranged through the co-operation of the Associated Canadian Travellers and the Provincial Cultural Activities Office.

Three Hurt Near Leduc

Three Ponoka residents were in hospital today following an accident yesterday on the Calgary Trail three miles north of Leduc.

Injured are:

Lawrence Morrisroe, 30.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cunningham.

Accident occurred when the light delivery truck in which they were riding left the highway, plunging into a deep ditch.

Mr. Morrisroe, a hotelman, was most seriously injured with a possible back fracture.

Mrs. Cunningham suffered cuts and bruises and a wrist injury. His wife was not critically hurt and was being examined for possible rib fractures.

Jack Hays ambulance moved the injured to University Hospital.

A Quality Product of CALGARY BREWING & MALTING CO. LTD.
The Leader Since 1892

AN EMPTY COT is searched by Eskimo footballers Harry Irving, left, and Frank Hickey for clues leading to whereabouts of Bartolini and Aull. They looked in vain, though, since Bart and Mel returned to eastern Canada last week.

CARRYING THE MAIL (beg pardon, dishes) off table are Eskimo candidates, from left, Bill Pattimore, Johnny Dlugos, Ken Moore and Harry Bunting. They are four of 27 athletes, including some members of Edmonton Cubs of Big Four Baseball league, boarding at DU fraternity house on U of A campus this summer. Some hardy souls bunk in hammocks and on ping-pong tables.

KP DUTY is a far cry from hitting baseballs, but it is post-meal pastime for Cubs' Slim Clovinski, left, and Jim Ryan, right. That's halfback Pete Lougheed, former Calgary junior star, calling signals in sink. Besides washing dishes, house residents make beds and sweep floors.

ELSEY NOT SIGNED?

Earl Elsey, a running halfback from Los Angeles, California, allegedly has not been signed by Edmonton Eskimos.

And that is a sad state of affairs, since the 'Earl' is a football blueblood which Esks can't afford to lose.

Earlier this year, in April, when Eskimos began mushing across Western Conference snows for the first time in a decade, working newsmen were told that Elsey was the first player to join the club.

He was believed to be signed lock, stock and football cleats with the Edmontons.

But apparently Elsey has been too busy crossing the goal line in workouts to bother signing on the dotted line.

And why not?

According to Elsey the reason is simple. Says He:

"No one has got around to askin' me to sign."

And if you are a pro, one who teaches others how to manipulate the business end of a shotgun, you compete for prizes which are not of a monetary nature.

Hamilton Team On Way to Calgary

WINNIPEG, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Hamilton Westinghouse, who defeated Winnipeg Scottish in the dominion soccer semi-final series here, left Winnipeg yesterday morning for Calgary where they will meet Vancouver North Shore in the best-of-three dominion final starting Saturday.

Manager Archie Heugh said before the team left that Hugh Costello, who missed the series at Winnipeg, would be available for the Calgary games, completing the eastern roster.

Buffs Should Be In Zoo After This

Stampeded 15-8 by Puritys In Free-Hitting Contest

CALGARY, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Puritys erupted for a whopping 21 hits last night as they downed the hapless Buffaloes 15-8, in a free-hitting contest between the two Calgary entries in the Big-Four Baseball league.

Outcome was never in doubt for the 2,300 fans after the opening innings, that saw Purity streak to a 3-0 lead and add another six in the top half of the second to put the game on ice.

Purity moundsman Dick Barnes allowed Buffs two runs in the second, but then held them off the scoresheet until the seventh inning when he eased up, allowing manager Lloyd Bradley's squad to pick up an additional three counters. They added another three in the bottom half of the ninth.

Every member of the Purity club, except left fielder Dick Noon, took a hand in clubbing starting pitcher Ken Terry, who lasted two innings, and Safold, who followed him. Rich Carlisle swung his bat for an imposing five safeties in six official times at bat, including a triple. Barnes and Mills both had three hits in five times at bat.

Barnes and third-baseman Gibbons of Buffs each hit homers in the ninth inning. Barnes' blow came with a mate on board, while Gibbons was the first man up for Buffs.

Happiest fan at the game was Calgary florist A. R. Morris, who was the lucky winner of a new automobile raffled off mid-way through the tilt by a Calgary service club.

Ruff Heads Alta Bowlers

CALGARY, Aug. 5.—Bill Ruff, of Edmonton, was named president of the Alberta Lawn Bowling association at the annual meeting last night. Ruff succeeds J. Allan, Calgary.

Other officers named to the slate were: J. D. Johnston, Calgary, first vice-president; S. Lee, Edmonton, second vice-chief; W. G. Walford, Edmonton, secretary; Ed. Candy, Edmonton, official umpire; George Buchan, Edmonton, auditor, and Rev. D. C. Ramsey, Edmonton, chaplain.

Bill McGruther, former secretary of the association, was made an honorary life member.

Meanwhile, on the playing field, Calgary bowlers dominated the triples and doubles competitions as annual tourney rolled toward finish line.

E. Short, Calgary, won the triples, with W. Gauld, Edmonton, finishing second. Al. Malin, Calgary, took the twilight doubles event.

CITY-OWNED FILLY HOT AS WEATHER

REGINA, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Fair Author, three-year-old brown filly owned by H. R. Metheral, Edmon, was as hot as the 90-degree weather yesterday at Regina Exhibition Park.

Piloted by Jockey Roy Russell, leading rider of the exhibition circuit, Fair Author equalled the seven-furlong track record here to win the Queen City handicap, feature race of the fourth day of racing.

Time of 1:29 4/5 was the same as that turned in by Miss Duncan Wednesday to slice one-fifth of a second off a 10-year-old mark.

Despite the heat, bettors continued to surpass last year's pari-mutuel play. Yesterday's tally was $65,679, a 19-per cent climb over last year's figures.

Lois Pulls Big Upset As Tweed Gals Clash

Joan Tweed, winner of the provincial junior ladies' tennis title in Calgary recently, was eliminated from the Garneau club open singles championships last night in straight sets.

Sister Lois Tweed, finalist against Joan in the provincial meet, pulled the surprise upset, winning 6-4, 8-6.

Harry Holmes advanced in a men's open singles match with a straight set win over Venor Calhoun, 6-2, 6-4. First-seeded Jack McIlveen will meet Holmes in today's draw.

Following are complete results:

Men's open singles—J. Thorburn def. H. Hall 5-7, 10-8, 6-1; H. Kinloch def. D. Batcheller 6-1, 6-1; K. Grierson def. J. Biddell 6-1, 6-1; H. Holmes def. V. Calhoun 6-2, 6-4.

S.S. Legion Ousts Prudhams 12-4

South Side Legion advanced along the trail that leads to the City Intermediate "A" Fastball championship last night, walloping Prudhams 12-4. Legion thus won the best-of-three series, two games to one.

Bill Story and Doug Blarley connected for home runs for the victors, Waly Tree and Eckart doing likewise for Prudhams.

Legion now meets Norwood in the best-of-three semi-final, opening Sunday at South Side Athletic grounds.

Toledo Pitcher Hurls Curtailed No-Hitter

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 5—(AP)—Walter Nothe, 31-year-old lefthander, last night hurled a no-hit no-run victory as Toledo defeated Minneapolis 2-0 in the first game of an American Association doubleheader.

Nothe not only held Minneapolis hitless for the required seven innings but also for an extra frame for his battery mate, catcher Eddie Mordarski, settled the issue with a two-run homer in the last of the eighth.

Nothe walked seven but no other Millers reached base, and only three of these advanced as far as second.

Cleveland Closing In on N.Y. Yanks

Indians Win Pair to Move To Within 2½ Games of Top

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Cleveland shaved the American league lead of New York Yankees to 2½ games by sweeping a Thursday twilight-night doubleheader from the hapless Washington Senators last night.

The Indians travelled 12 innings to capture the opener 6-3, then coasted to a 14-1 victory behind Bob Feller's six-hit pitching. Feller struck out nine for a personal season high. Dale Mitchell got five hits in the second game as Cleveland went on a 29-hit spree.

The normally hard-hitting New York Giants had an off-day yesterday and as a result their winning streak was stopped at six straight. Pitcher Larry Jansen was a loser, though he allowed Chicago Cubs only four hits.

One of the Cubs' four hits was a homer by Andy Pafko and it gave Chicago a 1-0 win.

Sharing the spotlight with Pafko was pitcher Johnny Schmitz, who gave up only three hits and had a no-hitter going into the eighth.

CARDS, BUMS WIN

In other major league action the race for the National circuit's leadership remained unchanged as both St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers won. Yankees slipped as they bowed to the rejuvenated Detroit Tigers, 3-2, in 11 innings.

Brooklyn whipped Pittsburgh Pirates 11-3 for Dodgers' fifth consecutive victory as Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Tommy Brown all connected for homers. Big Don Newcombe of the Dodgers, although tagged for 11 hits, registered his 10th victory against three losses.

At St. Louis, the Cardinals retained their half-game lead over the Dodgers in the fight for first place by battering Boston Braves 10-2. Redbirds slammed out 17 safe hits, including three apiece by Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst.

In other National league action Cincinnati Reds knocked off the faltering Philadelphia Phillies in both ends of a doubleheader, 8-5 and 9-1.

YANKEES LOSE 3-2

At New York a pair of jinxes worked overtime as Detroit beat Yankees 3-2. Pat Mullin, who thrives on Yankee pitching, punched out the winning hit, a single that scored Eddie Lake after two were out in the 11th. Vic Raschi, who has not beaten the Tigers this year, was tagged with his sixth defeat. He has won 15. Three of his defeats have been by Detroit.

At Boston, third-place Red Sox placed themselves only five games behind Yankees by trouncing St. Louis Browns 12-2. Dom DiMaggio, with two hits in four trips, took over the American league batting lead with a .347 average and ran his hitting string to 31 consecutive games.

Old Moanin' Lou at Durable Shortstop Goal

GETS BIG CHANCE TODAY

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Lean Luke Appling—"Old Moanin' Lou"—will have to wait at least another day before reaching the goal he wants more than any other, the major league record for durable shortstops.

The Chicago White Sox shortstop had hoped to tie last night the mark of 2,153 games set by Rabbit Maranville with five National league clubs, between 1912 and 1931.

But a heavy rain yesterday and threat of still more moisture forced postponement of the game against Philadelphia Athletics.

Appling, who has played 2,152 games in spending almost half of his 40 years with the White Sox since 1930, will get another chance to match Maranville's record tonight in Washington.

"It's the record I've wanted more than anything else," Appling admitted, "because I love to play baseball.

"How much longer will I keep on playing?

"Just as long as the club and the fans are willing to put up with me."

Which could be a pretty long time. At an age when most men are looking for rocking chairs, Luke is thriving on a baseball diet. His .305 batting average is the best of the club's regulars and he continues to field, throw and run at a pace that belies his years.

He's as much a fixture with the White Sox as the flagpole at their home Comiskey Park. Says club president Charles Comiskey:

"I don't remember any other White Sox shortstop except Appling."

Aside from durability and his demonstrated ability as a player Luke has one other trademark. He almost never fails to report some ache or ailment when asked about his health. Clubhouse stories about his aching muscles and creaky joints are part of the legend of baseball. That's how he earned the nickname, "The Moaner."

Colorful Chucker Shines As Singers Trim Norwood

Senior men's fastball league has a colorful character that, while in a talkative mood, has been known to exchange hellos with his catcher.

Milne was talking "pretty good" last night as he 'rared back' to strike out 18 men in a tilt.

Silent Jim Milne is the gentleman in question. And as usual it was the opposition that did all the talking. Milne just 'rared back and threw, striking out 18 of 25 men in the process.

MARINO BLASTS JACK TURNER'S TITLE HOPES

VANCOUVER, Aug. 5 — (CP) — Dado Marino, squat Hawaiian flyweight contender, blasted Jackie Turner's title ambitions here last night by pounding out a unanimous 10-round decision over the Vancouver ring veteran.

Marino, acknowledged No. 1 contender for the world's flyweight crown, was the aggressor all the way as he won seven rounds of the bout with ease. There were no knockdowns.

Ex-Kansas City Flash May Crash Yankees

NEWARK [illegible]

Thurman, a [illegible] left-handed [illegible] has been with the [illegible] Bears for only seven games but his thumping during that time has been something to see.

Purchased from Kansas City Monarchs to give the cellar dwelling Bears a boost on the field and at the box office, Thurman may go on to be the first [illegible]

[illegible] home run 270 feet over the [illegible] field barrier. The blow, coming with the bases loaded, brought the team to within a run of the Bisons 9-8, but the Bears eventually lost 11-8.

Bears are 4½ games behind seventh-place Baltimore and 18½ games from a playoff spot. Wednesday night's crowd of 452 is typical, so Thurman may not be able to do much about either the team's standing or attendance.

But if he continues to bash the ball, Thurman well might make the Yankee management extremely happy they bought him to help the Bears.

Par Soft Touch at Muny

[illegible] City amateur golf tournament, opening at Municipal Golf club Sunday, probably will keep the galleryites wondering why Old [illegible] beat.

Municipal with its wide fairways shouldn't prove too tough for the city's best amateurs.

Defending champion Vern Mohs, and Burns Martell, the latter three times a finalist, both have posted practice scores of 67 over the 18-hole layout at one time or another.

Martell thinks only shotmakers breaking 80 will qualify for the championship flight.

"You can't go too far wrong on [illegible] You're allowed plenty of leeway for a hook or slice."

Last time Municipal played host to the event was in '45, Henry Martell winning his 11th [illegible] Johnny McDonald, 5 and 4, in the wind-up.

Martell, now pro at Highlands, experienced no difficulty in carding a three under par for 32 holes in the final.

Now comes brother Burns for another crack at the crown. The likeable Highlands' smoothie will be working to break a jinx that has seen Vern Mohs edge him twice in the final.

Course superintendent Percy [illegible] reports the layout to be in [illegible] round Sunday morning, low 16 will qualify for the championship flight, with remaining players being drawn in flights of 16.

Matches will be played off during [illegible] opening, with final of all flights set for Sunday, Aug. 21. Post entries will be accepted up to 9.30 a.m. Sunday.

Policemen Patroled Victoria Park Yesterday for Annual Picnic

Spills and thrills were [illegible] yesterday afternoon as policemen took time off from their beats to participate in [illegible] race. Cheered by wives and children [illegible] and [illegible] Park. [illegible]

Police Converge on Park For Big Annual Picnic

[illegible] members of the city police force was [illegible] Victoria Park yesterday afternoon. For five hours policemen, their wives and families frolicked at the third annual picnic.

Activities commenced officially at [illegible] p.m. when Mayor Harry D. [illegible]

[illegible] the show to running in races.

Cheers greeted Chief Constable Reg. Jennings as he went to the starting line to compete in the fat [illegible]

Though dad had his innings pitching horseshoes and running races it was essentially a kiddies' party. To many of the wide-eyed youngsters yesterday's jamboree was more fun than the circus.

More than one little girl was baffled when she found that everything was free. She, along with all the others, had a splendid time eating ice-cream, cherries and peanuts. There were prizes too, for everyone, whether you won a race or not. All little girls went home happy with a kewpie doll, while little boys were given plastic fish. And if you won a race you got jack knives, flashlights, watering cans, rubber balls, slates and gardening tools.

CARNIVAL AIR

Winner of the race for girls under seven years became so excited she forgot her name, but she didn't forget to smile when presented [illegible] turned back, and headed for the starting line.

A carnival atmosphere prevailed throughout the afternoon. Ron Hooper, conspicuous in his yellow plaid shirt, as chairman of the program saw that events ran off in orderly fashion, while Pete Tyler, with the aid of a microphone, made sure that contestants knew just [illegible]

SHOE RACE

Not to be outdone at the family gathering were the mothers [illegible] speed.

Broken eggs were [illegible] as the women competed in the egg and spoon race. Needle and thread race and the much-heralded sack race brought squeals of laughter from the spectators.

Six-week-old Wayne Mitchell slept peacefully through all the merrymaking, not even waking up to find that he had been given a prize for being the youngest guest at the gala affair.

Firm Draws $70 Penalty

[illegible] trucking company which was faced with a possible one month suspension of licenses of all its trucks was let off with a fine in police court today.

[illegible] and Reimer Ltd., pleading guilty to seven charges under the highway loading laws was fined $10 on each charge.

The company first pleaded guilty in RCMP court, July 29, but the plea was withdrawn and reserved [illegible]

Modern Works Recital Wins Critic's Praise

Audience which attended last night's recital at the University of Alberta Education Building heard some startlingly modern piano music played by lecturer and composer Violet Archer.

Miss Archer, and her fellow lecturer in music at U of A summer school, Lawrence R. Cluderay, presented a recital of choral music to a filled hall, with a 40-member chorus formed of summer school music students.

Since it was primarily choral music that was to be heard, [illegible]

Here, in Edmonton, we hear little enough of modern works, and Miss Archer's was certainly of the modern school.

Full of discords and rumbling bass, it was most interesting, but the audience seemed a little confused, applauding between movements.

Miss Archer played her Sonatina No. 2 and a short [illegible] Allegretto Moderato, [illegible] and Fugue.

[illegible]

Air Flight Described

Flight over 6,000 miles of water into strange lands was described to the [illegible] luncheon yesterday [illegible] two-week trip as safe, comfortable and interesting.

He mentioned in particular seeing the motor ship "Aorangi" sailing west 1,000 miles out of Hawaii. This was on his flight to the Commonwealth. Returning four days later he saw the same ship outside Vancouver and arrived there two days ahead of it.

CITY FOUND TOO JAMMED

Edmonton won't be able to accommodate delegates attending annual convention of Alberta Association of Municipal Districts this year, so city council will do the next best thing.

[illegible]

Had there been adequate hotel accommodation here convention would have been held in Edmonton, Mayor Harry Ainlay explained to the committee.

Caravaners Blast Big Bend Route

More Spending Said Crime Against Nation

[illegible] ada Highway System Association (Yellowhead Route) at which plans for 100-car motor caravan to Vancouver were completed.

The caravan is scheduled to leave Edmonton August 15, and reach Vancouver August 19.

Uncertainty of keeping the Big Bend road open for traffic was the reason given by Mr. Grant against its development as a link in the [illegible] may be closed to traffic for lengthy periods unless it is completed," he stated.

[illegible] divorced from political pressure and sectional prejudice.

Either the extreme southern or the northern route through the Yellowhead Pass should be selected in Mr. Grant's opinion. He expressed confidence the Yellowhead route would be selected by any board of experts.

SELECTION NOT FINAL

Mayor Harry Ainlay stressed that [illegible]

MANY PARTICIPATING

The caravan will leave Jasper on August 16 for Blue River, stopping over at that point and proceeding to Kamloops on August 17. The cavalcade would proceed to Chilliwack on August 18 and will arrive in Vancouver at noon August 19.

Approximately 100 automobiles will be in the caravan. Also travelling in the cavalcade will be a sound recording [illegible]

Blue Breakfast Sets Latest in Glassware

By Ben Thrifty

Pastel-pretty Pyrex breakfast sets are the latest product of the versatile glassware people.

You've probably seen them around the stores. Cool and milky in appearance, they're shown only in a shade called "Blue Dawn."

• • •

Ideal for the summer cottage or general use, they're also a welcome offering to your favorite bride-to-be.

Thirty-two piece set costing $5.65 will save a lot of wear and tear on your cherished Spode.

This includes place setting for six, with large serving dish and platter thrown in.

Extras in the way of more serving dishes and other odd pieces can be bought for a mere pittance. For instance, 40 cents will purchase the cream and sugar set.

• • •

Speaking of Pyrex, that reminds me that refrigerator storage dishes can now be had to match your gaily colored Pyrex mixing bowls.

For $3.70 you can get four dishes in varied sizes, shapes and shades. Perfect for preserving left-overs.

• • •

Those "British import" [illegible] fail to catch my wandering [illegible]

[illegible] wool and 45% high grade cotton [illegible] $4.95 [illegible]

Heard tell last week that those fireplace cakes which burn so cheerily are in great demand at lake cottages.

You know, they're the ones you make by melting old candles and moulding the wax in paper cupcake cups. With bluestone and rock salt added they make the flames in your fireplace a [illegible]

• • •

If you're vacationing in a spot where there are lots of evergreens, gather up a few dry cones—the larger the better—and dip them in the wax mixture. Then put them away to dry.

You'll be glad, come Christmas, that you thought of it.

WHY GROW OLD

Men Sometimes Are Puzzling

By Josephine Lowman

How do men get that way?

Men are fine creatures, of course, but here are some questions some of them would not be able to answer satisfactorily.

1. Why do [illegible] hate to be kept waiting [illegible]

2. [illegible]

3. [illegible] Then later on, he likes it.

4. Why do men hate to "talk it out" if there are any emotional values involved?

5. Why do men hate to see you wear red nail polish or rouge or lipstick but find other women who do so attractive?

6. Why are men so afraid to pick up a little baby?

7. How can men make good poker players [illegible]

8. [illegible]

9. [illegible]

10. Why are men bored with [illegible]

11. [illegible]

12. [illegible]

Of course, [illegible]

[illegible] They are supposed to be master budgeters and yet save for the future and be charming and young and attractive at all times, and dish up wonderful dishes. They are supposed to play a good game of golf but not a game which is too good.

Anyway, it is quite a challenge. At least there is NEVER a dull moment!

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Sensible Attitude About Responsibility

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

There are two viewpoints about parental recreation both of which are extremes and neither one of which should be adopted.

The first is the idea that only the mother is capable of taking care of the baby and, therefore, her own recreation must be sacrificed until the baby is grown.

The second is that baby is a member of the family and should go everywhere the adults, or other children go, without reference to its age, the hour or the suitability of the entertainment.

The fallacy of the first is that babies should get used to hands other than those of the mother. Kind responsible persons left in charge help them to develop a sense of security not related to the mother alone. That's the way it must and should be.

Parents should be sensible of their responsibility toward their children's happiness and safety without making themselves martyrs to their care. If they adopt such an attitude they become consciously or unconsciously resentful of the chains upon them.

When parents have no regard for the baby's rights and lug him around wherever they go, they do him a grave injustice. Children should not be subjected to the excitement of adult entertainments, the confusion of groups of people, the lights and noise instead of darkness and quiet which should prevail at their sleeping hours.

Neither are parents privileged to go away leaving a helpless, sleeping child unprotected. It's done [illegible] by parents [illegible] imagination. Babies [illegible] up all because parents refuse to consider the incredible things which can happen to babies when left to their own resources.

Parents do need recreation and [illegible] and should not feel [illegible] taking it. But, they must [illegible] accommodating relative [illegible] sitter of responsible [illegible] neighbor who gives service [illegible] service, so that they [illegible] because of their ab[illegible] best interest of [illegible]

Success Depends On Opening Play

By William E. McKenney

It happened [illegible] a duplicate game was being played at the Mayfair and the [illegible] was especially crowded. Broun [illegible] a set game against Mr. and Mrs. Schellenberg, had jammed himself in a corner to avoid the curiosity seekers. As he got up to acknowledge the introduction the suspenders caught on the arm of the chair. He made his bow in shorts, but he never lost his poise. He simply said, "Folks, I literally have lost my pants in a bridge game."

However, Phyllis said Broun did not get upset because he sat right down and made his contract on today's hand, which has become quite famous.

Norwegians Eat Too Many Fats

OSLO. — (CP) — Norwegians, starved for fats during the war, have now turned to eating too much fats, says the Journal of the Norwegian Medical Association.

Recent cases of adiposis, or gross overweight have become so common that the magazine says it must be considered a serious post-war disease.

The colon and semicolon were first used in English punctuation in the 16th century.

THERE WERE 7,000 people present when this picture of the St. Paul stampede and exhibition grounds was taken during the 1948 show. The well-laid out grounds provides plenty of elbow room for the big crowd but everybody has a ringside seat for the attractions.

St. Paul Traces History To Exploits of Priests

Some 55 years ago two enterprising young priests, Fathers Lacombe and Therien left Edmonton by boat and canoe, drifting down stream to about a place, where today a modern steel bridge spans the North Saskatchewan river and connects the two thriving little settlements of Brosseau and Duvernay.

From there they travelled overland in a north easterly direction looking for a suitable settlement for western Canada's growing halfbreed population.

[illegible] from the river they found part open prairie with poplar and willow bluffs, sloughs and many lakes.

Here they found a veritable hunters paradise, moose, elk and deer were almost as thick as the mosquitoes and black flies. Waterfowl especially were so plentiful [illegible] when surprised in a sheltered bay of the lake, just before the fall emigration southward they would take wing and just about darken the sun.

Here they started the halfbreed settlement [illegible] St. Paul des Metis.

At the turn of the century the news went as far as Quebec province, that a district had been discovered between the Saskatchewan and Beaver Rivers, almost as big as the settled past of Quebec itself and far more fertile land than the east had to offer and it was not long before the first settlers arrived.

[illegible] provincial agriculturists and it is no wonder, that the St. Paul district produces registered seed, grain and grasses, by the carload.

THERE IS plenty of fun at Alberta's rodeos and St. Paul, which stages its stampede and exhibition Aug. 10-11, is no exception. One highlight is the steer cart race. Here, in a picture of last year's race, the Dondson team seems to be getting nowhere fast.

Calgary Golfer Takes Wetaskiwin Tourney

WETASKIWIN, August 5.—Championship Flight of the Wetaskiwin Golf and Country Club annual tournament was won by Bob Freeborn of Calgary, playing Emerson Mack of Highlands Club Edmonton 2 and 1.

The semi-finals in this event produced the two best games of the entire tournament. Mack, playing Bill Gostick, a well known golf winner had to go to the 19th hole, while Freeborn playing E. Berg of Camrose had to take him to the 20th hole hole before emerging the victor. In the consolation of this event Jim Bunlop of Lethbridge defeated Lyn Yule, Wetaskiwin.

First flight was won by Ray White of Red Deer, who defeated Eddie Thompson of Edmonton Highlands Club and the consolation was won by G. Forsyth of Devon, who defeated Grant Brebber, Wetaskiwin.

Bob Reid, Weatskiwin took the second flight when he won from L. Robinson, Sr., of Munson, while O. P. Strand, Wetaskiwin took the consolation when he defeated Bob Morgan of Camrose.

Third flight was won by E. Malo, Wetaskiwin drawn against H. Brooks of Edmonton and R. R. Reid of Edmonton, playing another Edmontonian, Tom Groves, won the consolation.

I. E. COLLETTE WINS

I. E. Collette, Wetaskiwin, won the fourth flight playing George Strange of Edmonton Highlands, while two Wetaskiwin players battled out the consolation, Bill Bathgate winning from Harold Buckley.

Qualifying round was won by Ed Schuman, Camrose with a 71, one over par, the lowest qualifying round in the history of the tournament.

The Caddie Queen bag and 12 clubs was won by Charlie Lamb of Edmonton.

The course was in the best shape it has been this year and meals and refreshments were served by the wives of members of the club and lady golfers at the Club House.

St. Paul's Fair Plant Rated High

Provision Is Made For Entertainment

The present St. Paul Agricultural society, sponsors of the annual rodeo and exhibition, was organized in 1946 and today it operates a plant worth $25,000.

On Aug. 10 and 11 the plant will sprout people, thousands of them—last year it was 7,000—as the society's stampede and exhibition is held.

The [illegible] J. H. Bedard, R. Nieberding and Roger Belzel.

It was built up by all town organizations [illegible] and co-operation so that today the society has property valued at $25,000 [illegible] bleachers.

BALL DIAMONDS

Baseball [illegible]

[illegible]

The [illegible] of the [illegible] head of the best purebred and registered cattle of all breeds will be shown.

The Stampede manager, S. Demchuk, will again have his two Palominos at the stampede. These Palominos have never been ridden and riders from all over the west will be here to try their luck.

Grandstand attractions promise to be the best ever.

St. Paul is the heart of northeastern Alberta, geographically located in the centre between the Beaver and North Saskatchewan rivers in the most fertile agricultural districts in the province.

HARD WORK on part of these St. Paul leaders will have its payoff Aug. 10 and 11, when the annual stampede and exhibition is held. These leaders are R. Neiberding, vice-president of the St. Paul Agricultural society; J. H. Bedard, founder and president, and Art Pigeon, second vice-[illegible]

President Cites Society's Value

J. H. Bedard, founder and president of St. Paul Agri[illegible] tion on August 10.

"May I suggest to the people of St. Paul and district to lend their support to their agricultural society because I believe that it is the show window of our community and it is for the best interest of every one to subscribe some effort toward it, in order to make of this district of St. Paul the best farmers organization in this province. Not only as a farmers organization but as a leading enterprise in our community to the mutual advantage of every one of us in this province.

Flowermen Hold Picnic

A ball game between the "retailers" and the "growers" featured a picnic of 100 employes of Edmonton flower stores Wednesday. The "retailers" won, 5-3.

Picnic was sponsored by the Allied Florists and Growers Association of Canada, Edmonton branch.

William Simoneau, captain of the winning team, received the silver Allied Florists' trophy on behalf of his teammates.

Bandit Gang Strikes Again

NICE, France, Aug. 5.—(UP)—Six bandits, armed with submachine guns, robbed the home of a retired French Colonel in Toulouse, France, of $1,230 in cash last night.

The description of the bandits, their accents and their technique tallied with that of the four men who Wednesday robbed the millionaire Indian potentate Aga Khan and his wife of jewels worth $185,000.

Police said the Toulouse bandits spoke "with a strong foreign accent." Their general physical appearance roughly matched those of the masked men who executed the daring daylight robbery of the Aga Khan and his wife.

Toulouse is about 130 miles west of Marseille where the hunt for the Aga Khan jewel thieves appeared to be shifting today.

Five Divorce Decrees Given

OIL

Eighteen Rigs At Redwater

By Hal Dean

Eighteen drilling rigs are now in operation in Redwater field and nine new sites have been located within the proven limits of the area, which in 10 months has passed the 125 producers mark. It was only October 1 of last year that Imperial's Redwater discovery was brought into production.

Of the nine new sites announced, four have been staked by Imperial—Amelia Nos. 2 and 5 sections 14 and 10 respectively, Imperial Redwater 13 in section 22 and No. 14 also in section 22. All four are in township 57.

Canadian Gulf has located two more on the west side, Jeffery No. 2 and Jeffery No. 7, both in section 19. The team of Pacific Petroleums, Atlantic, Sunray and Calvan Pete has staked two in section 10, township 58, range 22 and Western Leaseholds has announced a new site on section 17, township 57, range 21.

NEW HANNA WILDCAT

New wildcat in the Hanna area is announced by team in which South Brazeau holds a substantial interest. The new venture, known as South Brazeau No. 4, is on a British American Oil Company farmout of about 14,000 seismographed acres in the Hanna-Craigmyle district.

Site of the test is on LSD 2 of 86-31-14-W4, five miles northwest of Hanna and estimated completion depth is 4,700 feet. Regent Drilling is in charge and last reported depth was 2,604. If production is indicated British American will take over and that company also would handle any subsequent drilling.

Participating interests are: British American 44/88ths; South Brazeau 20/88ths; North Continental 13/88ths; Duvay Gold Mines Ltd., Toronto, 11/88ths.

Emjay-South Brazeau No. 2 was last reported below 2,607. This wildcat, jointly sponsored by South Brazeau and Emjay Petroleums, is in the Bashaw area, about 25 miles northeast of the Gulf-Ellis strike at Stettler.

GAS AT MORRIN WELL

Socony-Vacuum Exploration Company reported that its Socony Morrin No. 1 wildcat in lsd 15-9-32-19 W4th, a few miles north of Morrin town, and about 75 miles northeast of Calgary, got a mnximum gas flow of 76,000 cubic feet a day and a pipe recovery of 120 feet of drilling mud in a one hour test of the interval 3,848 feet to 3,896 feet.

At Redwater, Western Leaseholds' Western Redwater No. 21-11 testing from 3,230 feet to 3,250 feet for one hour, got a flow of crude oil at the rate of 32 barrels per hour. Crew then cored from 3,250 feet to 3,256 feet where another test has been run, but the results have not yet been received. Wstrn Rdwater No. 17-11 is waiting on cement at 3,235 feet and No. 17-6 is drilling at 1,276 feet.

McConset Leduc No. 3 is drilling at 5,046 feet. Leduc Calmar 1-A is at 5,195 feet. Home Anglo Woodbend No. 8 is drilling at 1,938 feet and No. 9 is at 373 feet.

CAL. OLIVER REPAIRING

Home Millarville No. 36 is at 4,561 feet and No. 7 is drilling at 1,345 feet. Leduc Calmar Oliver Lake No. 1 is currently shut down at 4,575 feet for repairs, and will core in the green shale upon resuming operations.

Initial potential figures have been announced for Home-Anglo Woodbend No. 6 and No. 7. No. 6 was completed at 5,309 feet, and on a one-hour flow test, rates a daily potential of 1,440 barrels, with a gas-oil ratio of 720 feet per barrel. The No. 7 well was finished at 5,291 feet, and rates a potential of 1,512 barrels daily on a one-hour test. Gas-oil ration is 775 cubic feet a barrel.

AERIAL SURVEY

Maps compiled from the projected aerial survey of Alberta's timber, mineral, oil and water resources, will be made available to the oil industry. The survey, just announced, will be undertaken very shortly.

It is expected to assist the joint provincial and Dominion governments' reforestation program along the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains. It also should help in the search for minerals and oil, as well as aid the public works department in planning and developing new highways.

Treasury Bills

OTTAWA, Aug. 5.—(CP)—The Bank of Canada announced yesterday that tenders have been accepted for the full amount of $75,000,000 government of Canada treasury bills due next Nov. 4. Average discount price of the accepted bids was $99.87259 and the average yield was .512 per cent.

Golds Decline, Then Come Back

Base Metals Push Higher; Industrials and Oils Gain

TORONTO, Aug. 5—(CP)—Golds could not duplicate their feat of yesterday on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. They opened lower but managed to recover the loss before th close of trading. Volume for the day in all groups was about 970,000 shares.

Senior golds opened the session on the minus side by recouped most of the loss. Juniors were mixed with gains in slight majority. Changes were confined in most cases to fractions.

Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting, Noranda, International Nickel and Sherrit Gordon were all substantial gainers in a higher base metal group.

Papers closed stronger to help the industrial average to eke out a fractional advance. Utilities were also well on the plus side and were followed in the same direction by liquors and financial institutions. Steels were lower with little activity in the other group.

Western oils enjoyed a good day with most issues on the plus side.

New York Stocks Close Strongly

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Demand for stocks developed punch late today and prices advanced fractions to around three points.

This latest step ahead in the market's summer rally raised the general price level close to the highest in about four months.

Rails and oils were singled out for attention but plus signs were sprinkled all over the list. Chemical stocks also did better than most other groups.

The trading pace quickened as prices advanced. The day's sales figures were distorted by heavy volume in Commonwealth and Southern but even subtracting C. and S. sales, turnover topped the 1,000,000-share mark. Including the utility company, sales verged on 1,400,000 shares.

C. and S. was splattered all over the ticker tape at the opening but made fewer appearances later in the day. Sales were made at five, a gain of ⅛ and top price for the year.

Generally the market appeared to be operating under the effect of numerous signs that the current recession may be at—or have reached—a turning point.

Higher prices were paid for Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Chesapeake and Ohio, Southern Pacific, stand Oil (N.J.), Gulf Oil, U.S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case, U.S. Rubber, Allied Chemical, Dow Chemical, Dupont, Eastman Kodak, General Electric and American Tobacco.

Canadian issues tended higher. McIntyre gained ½ and Canadian Pacific was up ⅛.

On the curb, Lake Shore added ⅛.

Hudson Bay Is Strong Gainer

MONTREAL, Aug. 5.—(CP)—A firmer undertone prevailed near the final hour on the Montreal Stock Exchange and curb market in quiet business dealings today. Mines were improved in moderate dealings.

Senior oils and base metals led the market into higher ground while papers established no definite trend. Utilities were generally quiet and unchanged.

Hudson Bay Mining was a strong gainer in the base metal list going up to 47½ while Noranda and International Nickel advanced ¾ and ½ respectively.

Quebec Pulp preferred was a heavy loser in the paper section slipping ¾ to 20. Canadian West Lumber and Price were minor fractional losers.

In senior and western oils B.A. Oil, McColl, Royalite and Anglo-Canadian were in the plus column. Home Oil dipped 10 cents to 9.10. Canadian Breweries was ahead ½ at 20¾.

In mines Dulama, East Malartic, East Sullivan, Louvicourt, Leitch, Hollinger, Giant Yellowknife, El Pen-Rey, Malartic, New Goldvue, Sherritt-Gordon and Wright-Hargreaves were given a lift.

South Brazeau Is Big Trader

CALGARY, Aug. 5.—South Brazeau was the big trader on Calgary Exchange today with 14,000 shares selling at 14 to 15. The close of 15 was one above yesterday. North Continental was improved ½ at 9½ in sales of 8,500.

Hanna Pete also moved ahead and closed at 11½ for a gain of 1½. Leduc West closed at 63 for a gain of 3 over the day's low. Hargal stayed at 11.

SUPPLIES RUNNING SHORT

Reduced Inventories Could Boost Prices

By Canadian Press

The increasing and busy populations of Canada and the United States have terrific capacities for consuming goods.

Despite warnings that demand is catching up with supply, as indeed it is in some things, the cost-of-living index continues to rise in Canada. And in the United States cautious buying by businessmen in recent months now means that they are running short of supplies.

An Associated Press survey of the American scene says:

"Inventories have been cut back so low, in some cases, that the buyers now have to come back into the market—at the sellers' terms. And prices are starting up again in some lines. The rush to buy again, if it gains volume, probably will give another boost to prices."

New York's Wall Street Journal comments:

"Stores have cut their inventories of some merchandise so low that now they are losing sales. Customers often can't find what they are looking for." However, it adds:

"It's a calculated risk; most retailers intend to continue taking."

On the basis of developments so far, this column has seen no reason to regret its comment of last April 12, which was:

"There are factors in the American economy which could make for a pick-up in activity later on; and, odly enough, they lie in part in the caution and nervousness now being shown.

"Right along the line, customer, retailer, wholesaler, manufacturer, are shopping for lower prices. Unless panic develops there is a point below which prices can't drop at present if they are to cover cost of production.

"When this level is approached, considerable buying may have to come into the market to make up for depleted stocks."

APPOINTED assistant comptroller of Canadian Pacific Air Lines at Vancouver, J. C. Gilmer was formerly general auditor for CPR at Montreal.

Grain Jumps At Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—(AP)—A A buying spurt was touched off in grains today by a proposed new farm bill. The market opened on good overnight gains and continued strong all day.

The 1950 contracts showed the biggest gains among grains. In addition to the farm proposal, this grain was aided by a charge of eight senators that the army was buying rye from Poland and the Russian Ukraine. The Senators protested these alleged purchases and asked that the Army buy American rye.

Wheat was 1⅜-3⅛ higher, corn was ⅛-1⅜ higher, oats were ⅛-⅜ higher, rye was 3½-3¾ higher, and soybeans were 2¾ to three cents higher.

Cash wheat: No. 3 red 1.94½-97½; corn: No. 1 yellow 1.40½-41; Oats: No. 1 mixed 64¾-67¼.

London Stocks

LONDON, Aug. 5.—(Reuters)—Conditions in the London Stock Exchange today were mainly steady. Small gains were shown by industrials on some bear covering before the week-end.

British government securities spent a quiet session and price changes were small. The 3½-per-cent war loan was steady around 95¾, as recent selling appeared to have dried up. Other issues generally were around the previous closing levels.

Copper and base-metal issues provided bright features when good support resulted in useful gains. The demand for the former was stimulated by a belief that they provide a good hedge against any sterling devaluation and gains were well held despite profit-making.

Interest in Kaffirs was small but prices were generally steady and the undertone remained firm.

Italo-Yugoslav Agreement Set

ROME, Aug. 5.—(UP)—Italy and Yugoslavia pledged themselves to become "good neighbors" today under the terms of a new commercial agreement calling for an annual exchange of $90,000,000 worth of goods.

The pact, which was signed last night, was the climax of seven months of negotiation. It included a pledge by Yugoslavia for a good neighbor policy toward Italy.

New U.K. Destroyer Saves 'Scrubbing'

LONDON, Aug. 5.—(Reuters)—A new destroyer fitted with "revolutionary" labor saving devices for the crew is to be launched Aug. 10, the Admiralty announced. It said the devices are a major departure from the navy's "scrubbing" tradition.

The destroyer has electric vacuum cleaners, electrically driven flairs for shipping paint and electric washing machines and potato peelers.

Coarse Grain Prices Follow Chicago Trend

WINNIPEG, Aug. 5 — (CP) — Coarse grains generally showed a firm trend today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange in sympathy with advances in Chicago grains.

Oats was actively traded, with shippers best buyers. Local demand also was noted in the deferred months. Offerings were on a fair scale. Barley was less actively traded and also came in for shipper demand. Offerings here were light.

Rye prices responded to advances in American prices. Some buying in this commodity came from American accounts. Hedging was modest but well absorbed, and prices closed at or near the highs of the day.

No export business was reported following yesterday's large sales. Class two wheat prices advanced one cent from yesterday.

U.S. Senate Helps ERP

TORONTO, Aug. 5 — (CP) — Administrators of the European Recovery Program, as well as the recipient countries, probably are breathing a little easier today.

The reason: the United States Senate yesterday turned back a measure which would have handicapped ERP considerably.

This was an amendment to the foreign aid appropriation bill which would have provided that a huge chunk of ERP funds—$1,350,000,000—be spent on surplus United States farm crops.

It is the essence of ERP that its funds are to promote the recovery of Europe and not to provide direct assistance for any American or North American group.

The funds do, of course, through helping to restore Europe and in the meantime helping to maintain trade, assist every one. But to restrict the ERP administrators in the way they think the money should be spent would be another thing.

While switching of money from one purpose to another apparently has been avoided, still a great deal of the money is in fact spent on this continent and a lot of it in Canada.

Canadian officials recognize that American exporters will turn an increasingly critical eye on sums spent elsewhere than in the United States, and this may mean that less ERP will be spent here.

Amethyst Goes Home In Month

HONG KONG, Aug. 5.—(AP)—The heroic Royal Navy sloop Amethyst will return to the United Kingdom in a month.

The Admiralty said the crew had been given the option of flying home or manning the ship. They elected to sail.

The Amethyst was a hostage on the Yangtze from mid-April until last week-end when it escaped from Communist shore guns. It lost 18 crew members in the April fighting on the river.

TWO CHILDREN miraculously escaped serious injury Monday when logging truck and trailer heavily loaded with logs, parted at Port Alberni, B.C., spilling giant logs over several parked autos. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Bennett escaped with minor bruises and scratches, although they were sitting in front of their father's car. Front compartment and side of car was demolished. Other autos and a wrecking car were severely damaged when trailer swung wildly into the curb while truck kept on its course.

Federal Truck Control Urged on Commission

TORONTO, Aug. 5—(CP)—Central control of all highway transport was urged upon the Royal Commission on Transportation today by the Ship-by-Rail Association of Canada.

The association, made up of railway employes, said the federal government should take over interprovincial and international highway transportation.

It declared that for the trucking industry generally there should be co-ordination of federal and provincial governments in establishing "some form of centralized control."

However, it would not take away highway transport revenues from provincial governments.

Highway carrier services within provinces now are under provincial jurisdiction. Inter-provincial transport is regarded as within the jurisdiction of parliament, but the federal government does not attempt to exercise control over it.

The association's brief was delivered to the commission on the second day of Toronto sittings in its cross-country tour of investigation into Canada's transportation problems.

The submission declared that at present Canada's provinces are regulating highway transport in the way each sees fit, with nine licensing authorities each with a different basis of regulation.

NATIONAL POLICY

The association declared it was not trying to legislate commercial motor vehicles off the highway, but it felt there was need for a national transport policy.

For that reason, it said, it "strongly urges this commission to make a thorough investigation into the highway transport industry of Canada with a view to recommending the co-ordination of the federal and provincial governments in establishing some form of centralized control.

NURSE IS HEADACHE

A nurse proved to be bad medicine for a youthful Ponoka driver who dated her.

Constaable A. R. Angus spotted a car speeding recklessly through Edmonton streets early this morning. The constable hailed a taxi and overtook the car at 97 street and 101 avenue.

The driver of the car, Eddy Fenski, was arrested and fined $50 in police court today on a dangerous driving charge. His license was suspended for three months.

In court accused said he was only trying to get his date, a nurse, back to her hospital in compliance with hospital regulations.

Average Canadian Meal Up in Price

Survey Shows Only Slight Increase In Staples Cost

By The Canadian Press

Mr. and Mrs. Average Canadian and their family are sitting down to meals this summer which cost a trifle more

At least, that's what the statistics show, even though Mrs. Average Canadian, who does the shopping, may think differently after checking her depleted pocket book.

A Canadian press survey of prices of seasonal fruit and vegetable prices and of staples such as meat, bread, milk and eggs shows only a slight increase over 1948 prices.

GOOD PROSPECTS

Prospects for pears, plums, peaches and apples—none of which is on the market in great quantity yet—are excellent. Despite early drought in some sections of the country a good second root crop is expected and winter storage bins should be overflowing with onions, potatoes, carrots, turnips and beets.

In some districts certain fruit and vegetable crops are in short supply and some are more expensive than last year. Lettuce and cucumbers are reported scarce in Winnipeg and tomatoes are expected to be more expensive in Ontario this year than last.

Throughout most of the dominion, housewives share the common complaint that eggs are too expensive. But farmers and food wholesalers say this is a seasonal occurrence and, fairly soon, prices of eggs should return to normal.

MEAT TOO HIGH

Meat prices generally are considered too high by housewives although they are not a great deal higher than in 1948.

In British Columbia, growers say fruit in the Okanagan Valley is of better quality this summer than last. A slight shortage of hothouse tomatoes and apricots is noticed by some housewives who observe, with some bitterness, that fruit and vegetables are cheaper in the United States.

Alberta's fresh fruits are plentiful and of higher quality than last year and prices have changed little. Dealers report margarine selling well and butter sales dropping.

In Saskatchewan, the survey uncovered complaints of high prices for meat, eggs and citrus fruit.

Small fruits have not flourished in Manitoba this year but, for the most part, vegetables have done well and no shortage of peas, wax beans, carrots, beets, cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower, vegetable marrow, potatoes, green onions, radishes and green peppers is noticeable.

Quebec is the only province in which a downward price trend is noted in some commodities. Meat is reported cheaper than last year and considerable reductions are seen in prices of tomatoes ($4-$5 a basket last year, 2.75-$3 this year), and new potatoes (down from $4 to $2.75 a bag this year).

In the Maritimes, as in the rest of Canada, many foods are high priced but fruit and vegetables are plentiful.

There are over 300 species of the Iguana lizard, found in Central and South America.

Driver Attacked By Bees, Truck Kills Pedestrian

UPLAND, Calif., Aug. 5—(UP)—A beer truck ran over and killed an elderly pedestrian after the driver was attacked by a swarm of bees, police reported today.

Driver Andy Binge, 40, Pomona, Calif., told officers he lost control of the heavy truck yesterday while fighting off the bees. The truck uprooted a fire hydrant, overturned, skidded 50 feet, smashed a power pole and pinned Dr. Samuel Garfield Arnold, 68, beneath the wheels.

The name of the royal family of England was changed to Windsor by proclamation in 1917.

France, U.S. Talk Defence

PARIS, Aug. 5—(AP)—French and United States military chiefs today held what they described as satisfactory talks on the defence of Western Europe.

"I think we see eye to eye," the United States Air Force Chief of Staff, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, said after the officers had talked for almost three hours in the French War Ministry.

Vandenberg said no decisions had been made, but that the discussions had been "very helpful."

FRENCH SEEK ASSURANCE

French leaders had been reported seeking assurances that France won't be shoved into the background in drafting Atlantic Pact defence strategy.

Asked if the talks get down to discussion of how far east to draw Western Europe's defence line, Vandenburg said "we were just finding things out."

He also was asked if the talks had concerned France's desire for a top role in the Atlantic Defence Council. He replied:

"Our discussions were on a military, not a political level."

Week's Rain Aid to Feed

WINNIPEG, Aug. 5—(CP)—Fairly general rainfall over the prairies during the last week has done much to improve the feed situation in Western Saskatchewan and Alberta, the agriculture departments of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National railways said today in their crop reports.

Harvesting has started at isolated points in Southern Manitoba but it will not be general for another 10 days in Manitoba and Southern Saskatchewan. In Northern Saskatchewan and Alberta it will be two to three weeks before the harvest gets fully under way.

The greater part of Southern Manitoba had rain during the week and, with warm weather, grains have ripened fast. At Roland, Man., 1,600 bushels of barley graded 3 CW and averaged 25 to 30 bushels an acre.

Saskatchewan has had good rains except in scattered areas where more moisture would benefit the south and west-central districts. Southern Alberta needs more rain to fill late grains while northern areas have improved noticeably.

Wheat heads have advanced in length over those of last year at the same time, particularly in Manitoba. Wheat is turning all across the Peace River country in Alberta and coarse grains are a close second. Much improvement is noted over the last few weeks with no damage of any kind.

Some leaf rust is reported in Manitoba and grasshoppers still are causing some concern in Saskatchewan. Hail has been reported from scattered points. However, these will cause little chance in the overall yield for the prairies.

The melon has been cultivated for many centuries.

Aussie Troops To Work Mines

Soldiers To Run Pits Mechanized Underground

SYDNEY, Australia, Aug. 5 — (Reuters) — Australian troops will work eight strike-bound underground coal mines as well as open-cast fields, it was announced today by the fuel minister, Senator William Ashley.

The mines have been idle for six weeks.

Eight mechanized mines in New South Wales had been chosen because they offered most favorable conditions to inexperienced operators, Ashley said. About 1,830 servicemen would work the mines in two shifts, producing about 7,800 tons daily. He did not say when they would start.

Army Minister Cyril Chambers said today that about 16,000 tons of coal had been delivered at the railheads since troops began working open-cast fields.

SPECULATION

Ashley's statement came amid widespread speculation on what course the Miners' Central Council will take at its meeting Sunday.

The council will consider a recommendation by delegates of the northern miners' lodges that mass meetings should be held to vote on whether the strike should end.

The acting president of the Miners' Federation, R. Hamilton, said today he expected that the Central Council would agree to hold mass meetings.

ADVISE MINERS

It would, however, advise the miners to consider their claims and the release of jailed union leaders instead of returning on the "unconditional surrender" terms proposed by the Australian Council of Trade Unions, he said.

Hamilton added that he felt certain that such mass meetings should be held.

More than 100,000 men, who are out of work in Australian industries dependent on coal, will be re-employed Monday owing to the successful work of soldiers in the open-cast mines.

Tennis Ace Hits Form

HALIFAX, Aug. 5.—(CP)—Unimpressive in his earlier starts, W. J. (Bill) Tully of Bronxville, N.Y., opened up today to sweep into semi-finals of men's singles of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Championships on a straight set victory over Vancouver's Walter Stohlberg. Scores were 6-1, 6-4, 6-1.

The defending champion thus ran true to his reputation of being a "deceiver." His game was mediocre in early rounds when he played just good enough tennis to get by.

Dry Ice Said Cure For Acne

CHICAGO, Aug. 5—(AP)—Common Acne, an unsightly skin affliction, can be cleared up swiftly by dry ice applications, two doctors reported today.

The blemishes usually are obliterated with one or two applications and leave little or no scarring, they said.

Small pieces of dry ice are applied directly to the pustules for three to five seconds. If the elevated blemishes are numerous, a large piece of the super-cold ice can be applied to a bigger area.

Within a few hours the pustules begin blistering. This is followed by drying and general shrinkage of the treated pustules.

If the lesions are deep, the doctors added, several such treatments may be necessary.

The report was made by Drs Carrol S. Wright and E. R. Gross in the archives of dermatology and syphilology.

Insurance company records show the life expectancy of women is greater than that of men.
